EDITOR'S NOTES . . .

T'WAS JUST BEFORE CHRISTMAS WHEN WE ARRIVED DOWN SOUTH
THE DOORS WERE ALL OPEN AND SO WAS MY MOUTH!
NOTHING REMAINED OF THE THINGS THAT WE'D HAD
THAT WOULD SELL IN A PAWN SHOP. OH THAT WAS SAD!

Yes, even my typewriter was gone, so I went right out and bought another one so I could finish this newsletter. It is hard to believe, but that typewriter quit working almost immediately. I took it back and the store was out of the one I wanted. I finally found a store with the right one and I hope that this one lasts through this page.

We have actually retrieved some items from a pawn shop nearby. Did you know that you have to pay the pawn shop owner the price that he paid? Somehow that doesn't seem right.

I thank you all for the many cards and letters that you have sent since our last newsletter. They are what keeps the DFA going.

Nancy Fratt, 735 Castleman Dr., Westfield, NJ 07090, sent in 2 pages entitled "The History of the Village of Cammack" compiled by Ruth Martin. This was published last June in the Delaware Co., IN Genealogist & Historian. The article mentions 9 Dragoos as land owners. I believe that they are all descended from Andrew s/o Belteshazzar (1751-1836). If you wish to have a copy of this article, let me know. Please include 2 stamps in your letter.

Carol Van Sickle, our Asst. Ed. and Treasurer, wrote that her son, John, a reenactor, recently finished work in a new documentary about George Rogers Clark. John, in the role of one of the Native Americans, was also in charge of that group of actors. The documentary was produced by NBC and CBS so it is not known which one will air the production. This Clark conquered British forts west of the Ohio River in the Revolution. Ephraim Dragoo served under Clark in 1779-80.

On the next page is the information about our 1996 Dragoo Reunion in Fairmont, West Virginia. We hope that many of you will be able to attend. Some of you are ready to make your reservations and send in your preregistration form. You should make your reservations before June 21 so that you will be sure of getting a room or rooms as the case may be. See the preregistration form on page 280.

1996 DRAGOO FAMILY REUNION

JULY 19, 20, 21

HOLIDAY INN, FAIRMONT, WV

Marvin Baker and I met with the hostess of the Fairmont Holiday Inn on Oct. 16 and made firm plans for our next summer's reunion.

The room rate is $45.00 + 9% tax which totals to $49.05. Each room has 2 double beds. For $5.00 extra a crib or a roll away bed is available also. Reservations may be made for Thursday, July 18, as well as for the 19th, 20th, and 21st.

For reservations call: 1-304-598-7550
Or write to: Holiday Inn, I-79 & Old Grafton Rd., Fairmont, WV 26554.

Be sure to mention that your reservations are for THE DRAGOO FAMILY REUNION to get our special rates. Specify the first floor if you do not wish to climb stairs (no elevator). One handicap room is available.

MEALS: In order to get free use of the meeting room, we must have one meal a day served there. We decided on the following:

Friday morning, July 19. Buffet Breakfast $5.95 + 23% = 7.32
Saturday Evening July 20. Buffet Dinner $13.50 + 23% = 16.60
Sunday Morning July 21. Buffet Breakfast $5.95 + 23% = 7.32

The Holiday Inn personnel will collect the money for meals at the meeting room door. Credit cards will be accepted. We hope that you will be able to help support the DFA by attending these buffets.

SUGGESTED THINGS TO DO:

1. Visit Prickett's Fort and attend a buffet dinner in a new restaurant before going to the musical play at around 8:30 P.M. This is held outdoors, after dark. The audience is seated on bleachers. Bring your jacket!
2. Take a trip to see the Dragoo Cemetery on the former John Dragoo Farm near Barrackville. The cemetery is accessible by car.
3. Take a Monongahela River Cruise on The River Princess, $19 for 2 hours per person or $9.00 for one hour. If enough of you are interested we could charter a cruise for 46 people. They have more tables and chairs than that but they want everyone to have room to move around. The boat is docked in in Star City in the Greater Morgantown Area. Tours start at 11 A.M..
4. Visit the Marion County Museum next to the Marion County Court House.
5. Do research in the Marion County Court House in Fairmont and in the Monongalia County Court House in Morgantown.

Since we are not collecting for the buffet breakfasts and dinner, we are asking all of you who will be attending the reunion to fill out the attached preregistration form. Gene and Jackie Watson are again making name tags with ribbons for us. They will need the information and funds for the project. Be sure to send it before the reunion to Gene and Jackie. Their address is on the form.

Please let me know at which buffet meals you will be and your interest in attending the play; also if you wish to take a cruise on The River Princess. We will need to know in order to make reservations.

My address until April is: Louise Sinclair, Rt. 4, Box 376, Hawthorne, FL 32640

THE SOUTH DAKOTA DRAGOO REUNION

The descendants of O. F. Dragoo as well as Vickie and Marvin Baker (descendant of Indian Billy) met at the home of Gordon and Lorrie Dragoo on Aug. 19 and 20, 1995 for a Western Dragoo Reunion. You will remember from past newsletters that O. F. was descended from William and Temperance Dickerson Dragoo. The line back from Gordon is as follows: Edgar, Orloff, Lemuel, Peter and the above William who was born on Staten Island, NY in 1747. From William on the following generations moved westward. Peter went to IN in 1831 and O. F. (Orloff) went to SD in 1910.

Marvin Baker took many pictures and gave a set of them to the DFA. I am publishing 5 of them here for you. Gordon and Lorrie operate the sheep ranch that O. F. established many years ago.

Several of you expressed an interest in the Rosella Dragoo Earp article. Vi Parsons wonders if she was an eleven year old girl named Rosa Jane Dragoo, a descendant of Jacob Dragoo s/o Indian Billy. I won't give details here because I cannot verify this. If that was the case the Earps would want to keep silent on the issue and send her back home to her parents.

Carol Van Sickle requested that I include the Dragoo-Earp marriage license in this newsletter - see below:

To learn all about the Jacob Dragoo branch, note the following announcement:

JACOB DRAGOO BOOK TO BE READY BY JULY 1996

After finding that Jacob DRAGOO, (son of Indian Billy) and Susanna BRIGHT were my Great Grandparents, I began looking for information. Almost every family history book or article identifying Jacob said ..."Jacob went to Illinois, married there and nothing else is known of him". In one year I have filled a three inch binder with family group sheets, vital statistic documents and census records of Jacob, Susanna and their children's families. (I could use more documentation for two of their children, Harvey, born about 1852 and Rebecca J. born about 1848). The book size will be about 6x9 and approximately 200 pages, printed on acid free paper. It will include copies of documents. Sources will be documented. Estimated cost is $25.00 plus mailing. I need to know how many to print. Prepayment may be requested prior to publication. If you would be interested in purchasing a book, please send a postcard to:

Vi Parsons, P O Box 3461, Yuba City, CA 95992-3461.

Jeff Phillips, 995 S. Helena Way, Apt. D, Aurora, CO 80017 sent in the following biographies of George and James Draggoo, sons of Frederick and Martha Angel Draggoo. Jeff has not yet joined us; but has paid for many pages of information on his 4th great grandparents Mary Draggoo and James F. Carr. Mary was the daughter of Frederick and Martha Angel Draggoo. He would like to hear from any of you who are researching this line.

The biographies are from the History of De Kalb County (IN) which must have been written in the 1890s. The last date I can find in any of the pages that I received is 1885.

James Dragoo, a pioneer of De Kalb County, Ind., was born near Hayesville, Ohio, Aug. 5, 1817. He was the sixth of nine sons of Frederick and Martha (Angel) Dragoo. He came to De Kalb County in 1837 and entered land in Jackson and Concord townships. Then returned to Ohio and remained till 1841, engaged in farming. In 1841 he moved to De Kalb County and settled in Concord Township where he improved a farm of 125 acres, on which he lived till 1874 when he rented his farm and moved to Auburn. While living in Concord Township he served as Justice of the Peace nine years. He has been variously engaged in various branches of business since coming to De Kalb County. At one time he was associated with John P. Widney in the mercantile business. At another he bought hogs and cattle and shipped to the Eastern markets, and in an early day he bought cattle and horses which he drove to markets in Illinois and Wisconsin. He has been twice married. First, in August, 1838, he married Zerniah Johnson, who died in Concord Township in March, 1873. In September, 1874, he married Mrs. Hannah Ferrell, of Newcastle, Pa. They have one son—Harry D. A son, Terry, died March 4, 1877, and a daughter, Clarissa, died July 11, 1880. Mr. Dragoo has three adopted daughters—Sarah H., now the wife of E. Burke, of Monroe County, Ohio; Harriet, wife of H. P. Culbertson, of Auburn, and Charlotte, wife of Jeremiah Davis, of Jackson Township.

George W. Draggoo, farmer and stock-raiser, Concord Township, is a native of Richland (now Ashland) County, Ohio, born March 22, 1826, the youngest of twelve children of Frederick and Martha (Angel) Draggoo. His father died when he was twelve years of age and he remained with his mother till manhood, receiving a common school education. His mother died when he was twenty-one years of age, and the following fall, 1847, he came to De Kalb County, Ind., and bought the land which is now his valuable farm. To his first purchase he has added till he now owns 155 acres, all under cultivation, and his residence and farm buildings are pleasant and are built with all the modern conveniences. Mr. Draggoo has accumulated his property by hard work and frugality. He has been an influential man in the township, and in 1860 was elected Magistrate and served eight years. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity and one of the most esteemed of the brotherhood. In politics he is a Democrat. He was married April 26, 1849, to Samantha Blair, daughter of John and Margaret (Douglas) Blair, one of the first families in De Kalb County. They have two children—Alice A. and Franklin B. Mrs. Draggoo is a member of the Presbyterian church.

Many newsletters ago we wrote a page (62) about Frederick Draggoo. We did not give the names of his children at that time. Since we have the biographies of two in this newsletter, we are naming the other eleven children as well. The information is from Carol Van Sickle.

Vi Parsons, P. O. Box 3461, Yuba City, CA 95992-3461, sent in her profile sheet about her ancestors and her early life. It is so entertaining that I am putting the last 2½ pages in this newsletter. Vi publishes her own newsletter, the Dragoo-Carr Clan. Her line is: Nancy Lucetta Dragoo Carr d/o Joseph Dragoo s/o Jacob Dragoo s/o William Dragoo (Indian Billy) s/o John Dragoo 1748-1824 and Elizabeth Straight (who was kidnapped and killed by Indians when Billy was kidnapped by them.)

EVENTS IN YOUR LIFE AND FAMILY STORIES:

WOW! I'm glad you asked! Stories and facts of my immediate family would make a good soap opera. Looking at our DRAGOO ancestry it must have started way back when and continued to my generation.

With the help of other DRAGOO researchers, I have traced my Mother's Father's line back to Pierre DRAGAUD in France. I have documented my line back through William DRAGOO "Indian Billy" and Rebecca MATHENEY.

My Mother, Nancy Luetta (DRAGOO) CARR never met her Grandparents, but she had many old Indian stories to relate. Families stories are so much fun. They have enough truth to make them interesting and enough fable to make them fascinating. My Mother's favorite stories were about the Indians living in Indian Territory where she was born. That area is now known as Mayes and Delaware Counties of Oklahoma. Her Father Joseph James DRAGOO raised and sold tobacco to the Indians. From the time we were very small she would tell us about the Indians drinking and dancing around a campfire outside their home. She said her Father used to make the table rise. He could make it sound like someone was knocking at the door. When she would go to look, no one was there. She thought they were performing witchcraft. It was probably more like "spooks and magic". She said her Father spoke Cherokee with them. Mom had lots of stories about her Indian Great Grandfather. She told them as if she were there. We now know that she was referring to "Indian Billy". He died 41 years before she was born! She was very superstitious. We couldn't open a black umbrella in the house. If a gardening hoe was brought in one door it had to be returned out the same door. Beware if a black cat crossed our path on the way home. We had to detour. One night we saw a halo around the moon. She cried out, "Someone's dying right now!" My sister and I teased her and said "Sure. Someone, is dying somewhere every minute!"

Married Dec. 31, 1912
Their Wedding Day
Dec. 31, 1912

Mom did say that Grandpa,Joe DRAGOO,never liked filling out papers He didn't want people to know his business. His only son, Elzie Thomas DRAGOO was born in Custer Co., Nebraska,in 1885. Elzie's children said their Father didn't know very much about his Dad. They thought he was some kind of Minister. They did say that Elzie remembered that his family moved a lot, always in a hurry, and in the middle of the night! Sounds more like a bootlegger than a preacher,doesn't it? We talked with a lady in 1990 who knew Grandpa Joe in 1923 just before he died. He was living with his daughter,Nancy and son-in-law,John E. CARR. She said he drank all the time. When he drank,he was mean. About three weeks before he died he went to one of those old fashioned gospel meetings. She said he fell out like he was in a trance and talked some funny language. The neighbors all said he got religion. In any event, he didn't drink any more.

My parents were also very religious. They were Pentecostal preachers. We think Mom was brought up in the old fashioned Methodist Church. Dad was a Campbellite, and later belonged to the Church of Christ. A brush arbor meeting was held near where they lived in Arkansas. Mom was very interested and attended the meetings. Dad acted disinterested and skeptical. He would wait for her to leave with the others for the meeting. Then he would sneak down there, stand way back and watch. Just before the services were over he would rush home and be sitting, relaxed. When Mom would come in he would say, "Well, how was it?" As it would happen, he was convinced and converted from those meetings.

They were ordained ministers with the Apostolic Church of Jesus Christ, Inc. in St. Louis, Missouri. They always felt that their "calling" was to preach to the old families they knew in Arkansas. My twin sister and I got to go on one of those trips in 1952. We didn't have a car. We rode with some people in our hometown of Chowchilla, California. They had a new Mercury with air conditioning. We drove old Hwy. 99 to Bakerfield and then across the Mojave and part of Route 66. Turned out that the "air conditioner" was one of those bullet shaped units about two feet long and 12" in diameter attached to the passenger side window. The air was drawn in from outside when the car was in motion and blew inside through the vents! We rode the Greyhound Bus from Arkansas to Missouri and then home. Looking back on this now, it was one of the most important historical trips we made.

When we were in Ozark, Franklin Co., Arkansas, one of our families friends took us to town to the hardware store. Mama, (Nancy DRAGOO CARR) bought a used headstone for $8.00. It was about three feet high, and 18" wide and 4" thick. It had a rounded top and sat on a square base. They cemented on a new face and used a knife and nail to hand carve "DRAGOO". We went to the cemetery and put it in place. In 1990 Violet and I went back to see the town of Ozark and the old Belt Cemetery. The town looks much the same. The hardware store is gone. We talked with Elmer GRAHAM who took us to the cemetery in 1952. He was 82 years old. His mind was still sharp. This was the cemetery. It had a new cyclone fence and gate. We found the grave. The headstone was reversed.

Later we were told that a herd of cattle stampeded through the cemetery and tore down many of the markers. The stone now says "GREEN". We don't know if the face came off during the stampede, but we know this is the spot. Our CARR & DRAGOO families are currently raising funds to purchase a new marker to be set in the spring of 1996.

STORIES ABOUT MY SISTER AND ME, "THE CARR TWINS" WOULD FILL A BOOK BY THEMSELVES.

By today's standards our lives would be considered unbelievable. For starters, we liked each other. It's a good thing, too, because Mama never let one of us go anywhere alone. We were always together. If a friend invited one of us, they had better expect to see two of us.

None of our teachers from First Grade through High School could tell us apart. Our first teacher put a pink or blue bow in our hair. I never could tell how she knew who wore the pink and who wore the blue.

We were chatterboxes. In the second grade our teacher tied those old fashioned eraser cloths, chalk dust included,around our heads. We looked like we had toothaches!

In 12th grade we played a trick on our English teacher. She made us sit at different tables, so she could tell us apart. She was so sweet and naive. We laid out the plan. We would go into the class and sit down in the wrong chairs. We were taught to be honest in everything. So, when the warning bell rang,we would go to our correct places. The plan was working until we changed to the places where we should be. The teacher saw us move and said, "I saw that. Now get back in the places where you belong"!

We have that phenomenon known as the mysterious bond of twins syndrome. One usually knows when the other is in trouble or ill. We still talk alike and act alike even though we are separated by many miles from California to Louisiana.

These are just a touch of scenes from the past. Someday they will be written in a book called "The Carr Twins".

EDITOR'S NOTES...

It is hard to believe that we have written 228 pages and are still going strong. Several of you have sent for all of the back issues recently so that you can catch up on what we have been writing about for the past six years. Bill McAfee was one of those members and here is his reaction:

"I want to tell you how much I enjoy reading the back issues of the Newsletter. I had never seen the account Billy dictated before his death, relating the places he lived as an Indian. While I haven't yet found the Mad River he referred to (it must be in Ohio). I got a very funny sensation when he started talking about the Flat Rock, the Stony Creek, the River Raisin and the Huron River. I cross or come close to crossing one or more of the latter three streams almost every day, here in Jackson and Washtenaw Counties of Michigan. I intend to check, but due to the proximity, I will assume that what he referred to is now the city pf Flat Rock, right on the Monroe/Wayne County line. It was almost eerie to realize that I'm covering, in 1994, some of the same ground he covered in the late part of the 18th century."

When Billy crossed the Ohio River from what is now West Virginia to Ohio it was at what is now New Martinsville, W.Va. I mentioned this in a previous newsletter, I believe. Marvin and Vickie Baker visited us in September on their way home from a vacation to Virginia Beach and we took them to see the John Dragoo cabin and to FishingCreek where it empties into the Ohio River. It does give one a strange feeling to trace the steps of a relative that lived long ago.

All of us who attend the 1996 reunion in Fairmont, W. Va. will be privileged to see where Indian Billy was kidnapped and where other Dragoos lived. We have decided to hold our reunion at the Holiday Inn, Fairmont. It is a two story building with stairs only. Those of us who do not want to climb steps will be able to stay on the first floor. All rooms will be the same flat rate of $45.00 plus tax. We have moved the date of the reunion to the third weekend of July so that we can attend the musical play one evening. The meeting room is expensive unless a meal is served there. Our program chairman, Marvin Baker, and I think that we should have a buffet served on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Buffets are available for breakfast, lunch, or dinner. We can pick which meal we want served each day.

Write to Marvin Baker about your ideas for the reunion. We need your thoughts on which evening you wish to attend the play. It starts when it is dark around 8 or 8:30 PM. We want better communications with the people attending the reunion. We want to have a clear itinerary of events that will be given to them when they sign in. Marvin also wants to know in what way any of you attending will be able to help.

We have had letters from some of you and want more! Vi Parsons writes: "you should print a'challenge' to those who will be attending the 1996 reunion. Several of us need to try to learn sign language to communicate with Edgar Thomas Dragoo. He is studying from the book 'Joy of Signing." I believe that I saw Vi and Eleanor Billings communicating with Edgar Thomas in this manner.

Marvin Baker's address is 1362 Lundy's Lane, Newark, OH 43055. Be sure to write!

We were in Newark, Ohio,for the Dragoo reunion on September, 17. We were in such a hurry to meet our distant cousins that we got a speeding ticket on the way. It was a rainy day and a good day to stay home; as a result the attendance was down from past years. Following is the item written by Maxine Fisher, the president for this year: "Dragoo descendants of the Licking County area met Sept. 17 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Newark. Louise Dragoo Sinclair of Alma, W. Va., editor of the newsletter of the national Dragoo Family Association, attended the meeting.

Other people present at the meeting were Kenneth Sinclair, Delbert Osborn, William and Violet Ode, Maxine Fisher, Marvin and Vickie Baker, Melissa James, Jonathan James and Andrea Insinga."

Violet Bridges Ode is related to Mary Jane Bridges Dragoo who lived in Sterling, KY. She lived with a nephew, Tom Dragoo, until her death in in 1981 or 82. As far as I can tell this would be a branch of Benjamin Franklin Dragoo s/o Belteshazzar I. The Odes did not know how they were connected to our family.

The time for next year's meeting was not determined; but if another reunion is held it will be at the Bakers home.

The Newark branch of our family discussed making a bid for the 1998 national reunion in their city. They have the motel picked out and places to see in mind.

In the last newsletter we published the names of those who attended the KY-OH reunion and asked for the names of anyone that we might have missed. We did, indeed, miss some. Nancy Dragoo Mason wrote that her husband,Billy, two grandchildren: John Allen and Jamie Kay Mason attended as well as her daughter-in-law Brenda Mason. Nancy stated that they all enjoyed every minute of it.

Another person that we missed was John Reed who drove his parents, Gary and Nancy Ross Reed to the reunion. We did not have any information on the Reeds so Bill McAfee supplied it as follows: "Gary was one of the older cousins I looked up to while I was growing up in Smithfield (WV). Gary's mother, Esther Beryl Dragoo Reed was my mother's (Alma Irene Dragoo McAfee) next sister. They were the daughters of Curtis Virgil Dragoo of Smithfield, WV. The line, then, goes to Eugene Virgil, Elide William, Ephraim, John and Elizabeth Straight Dragoo, etc. Gary Frederic Reed was born and educated in Pittsburgh, working variously in car and insurance sales. He married Nancy Jane Ross of Wheeling in 1964. After moving to Texas in 1970, John Frederic was born. John is a college student in Austin and was bitten by the genealogy bug in Maysville. He has already started contacting some of his first cousins who have been out of the mainstream of family communications for some time."

We are pleased to learn about John's new found interest in genealogy and hope that he will write to us about his finds.

I have had several inquiries about an advertisement for The World Book of Dragoos supposedly by Peggie R. Dragoo,with an address in Bath, OH. June and Elmer Dragoo wrote that they did not think that the book was of much value. They received a book from Bath some years back and it was filled with names and addresses of Dragoos. I have seen such a book and the names and addresses were repeated on several pages. I do not know what is in this present book; but beware of anything from Bath, OH.

EVENTS OF 1774 Part Two By Phyllis Vines

In our last newsletter Phyllis told us about events leading up to the Battle of Point Pleasant, VA (now W V) of 1774. She explained that our ancestors were not in that battle because they were not with the Southern Virginia Army of Andrew Lewis. They were with the Northern Army of Lord Dunmore recruited from Fort Pitt (Pittsburgh, PA). Her story continues:

Dunmore issued a proclamation on 25 Apr., 1774. After referring to Pennsylvania's claims, he asserted that Fort Pitt was "in danger of some annoyance from the Indians" and called on Connally (commandant of Fort Pitt) to "embody a sufficient number of men to repel any insult."

The following day, 26 April, Connally issued a circular letter to the excited settlers, well calculated to arouse them further; being in effect a declaration of war against the Indians.

About 30 April, a group of frontiersmen led by Jacob Greathouse, using deceit and trickery, ambushed and killed the people of Chief Logan who were camped at the mouth of Yellow Creek. Logan, a Mingo Chief, had NEVER raised his hand against a white man. He had refused to participate in Pontiac's uprising and had always advocated peaceful co-existence between the two races. His people at Yellow Creek, on a hunting trip, were no threat to whites or redskins. For the first time in his life, Logan raised his tomahawk and began raids on the settlers along the frontier. Dunmore had his war!

Little was gained in exchange for the many dead, wounded and carnage except that which subserved England. While the war was a temporary distraction, it did not lessen the Pennsylvanians'determination to control and govern their own territory. It did prepare the way for the Indian alliance with England in the Revolution and twenty more years of trepidation from the Indians on the western frontier,and it was in 1786 that Billy Dragoo was captured and his mother killed.

It gave the frontiersmen a new found confidence in themselves. They knew that they could fight to free themselves from England and the likes of Lord Dunmore and his co-hort John Connally.

With the opening of the Revolution, Dunmore escaped with his life to a British ship in the harbor. Connally made his way to that ship but while on a mission for Dunmore, he was captured in Maryland and taken prisoner to Philadelphia.

Prickett's Fort was built in 1774 to protect the frontiersmen of the area which included some of our ancestors. After the Revolutionary War it was allowed to go to ruins. By 1976 no one knew exactly where it had been located, so it was reconstructed (for the bicentennial celebration) in the approximate location.

The play, a musical, which is performed for a few weeks each summer,is about the building of the fort in 1774 and about events that occurred up through 1778. The characters in the play were neighbors of our family. One character, Zackwell Morgan, was our Belteshazzar's commander in the Revolution. One other, Charity Prickett later became the mother-in-law of John Dragoo whose first wife,Elizabeth Straight, was killed by Indians. We hope that those of you who attend the 1996 reunion will tour Prickett's Fort and go see the play there.

Lyle Dragoo, 3876 Kalakala Circle South, Salem, OR 97306, phone 503-364-6289, attended our 1994 reunion and then went on to Missouri and Nebraska. Below is part of his letter:

"After we left Ripley, Ohio, and Maysville, Kentucky, Carol and I drove our rental car to St. Joseph, MO, and visited my 92 year old Aunt Gladys Shortridge DuBach. She is my mother Grace's sister. We stayed two days and had a great time. We then moved on to Fairbury, NE where our family had a reunion on August 6th and my high school (Reynolds, NE) had an alumni reunion on August 7th. On August 8th we dropped off our rental car at Lincoln, NE, airport and flew home to Oregon. I must say during those 11 days we enjoyed many experiences of friendship and love....

During our time in St. Joe, MO, Carol and I visited Atchison County, MO, cemeteries. I have relatives that were either born or buried there. While we were at the Ramada Inn, Maysville, KY, Dorothy and Gerald Smith showed us a book that was called Gone But Not Forgotten which was published by the Atchison County Historical Society. This is a historical record of about 30 cemeteries in Atchison County and a detailed listing of the deceased.

We purchased two of these books while we were there. The first day we purchased one from the Fairfax Forum, Fairfax, MO. The second day we purchased one from Rock Port Library, Rock Port, MO. This book has around 50 pages of Dragoo history as well as family members with last names such as Mapes, Anderson, Smith, McNulty, and on and on.

There is so much Dragoo family descendants history in this book, I thought The Dragoo Family Association could use a copy of this book in their genealogy search. This is why I purchased two books, one for our own use and one that I am donating to The Dragoo Family Association. I hope it will serve as a valuable source of information to all of you that are searching for more family history.

On page 350 is the tombstone of my great grandfather Benjamin Franklin and great grandmother Mahala. This was important to me since some of the papers I have read said they died at Osborne, KS.

Also, on Page 118 under Evans is listed Andrew E. died February 12, 1870. This is the father of my grandmother, Effie Evans Dragoo wife of Sherman Dragoo. Andrew died in the Civil War....

While we were in Ripley, OH, a group of us visited the Howard's cemetery upon the hill where Daniel Dragoo (1780-1837) and his wife Susan Anne Bayne were buried. This was good history to me.

I know my grandfather (gg) Milton W. (1810-1886) and his wife Mary Parker went to Atchison County, MO, but we did not find their tombstones nor did I find them in the book (Gone But Not Forgotten) In the event you know, would you let me know where they are buried."

According to a letter from Mrs. M. E. Shelton, 223 W. Murray, Denison, TX 75020, who is a long time DFA member, Milton and his wife did not leave Brown County, OH. Milton is buried in Hickory Ridge Cemetery on the Tyler farm near Ripley, Ohio. James Milton, son of Franklin Wm. Dragoo, is the one who went to Missouri. Some of us overlooked the first name of James in our research on Missouri Dragoos.

We want to thank Lyle for his generosity in giving us Gone But Not Forgotten He also sent many pages about our relatives from other books, History of Atchison County and from a book by Staples. All of this information really helps us learn more about our family. Thank you so much, Lyle.

I found names and dates of my own branch and even learned that my uncle, who died at the age of four, was named Emet O. I had only heard Oscar so I knew what the O. stood for.

Dorothy Smith made a four page list of most of the names associated with our family as well as many of the Dragoo names and was kind enough to send it on for our files. I had also made a list and found that she had some names that I had missed. Between us I think that we got them all. If any of you have relatives buried in Atchison County cemeteries and want names, dates, and spouses let me know and I will send what I have on them.

Dorothy also wrote that the head stones of Daniel and Susan Bayne Dragoo are in poor condition and are lying flat on the ground. The location is in Howards' Ridge Cemetery. Dorothy and Gerald dug the stones out of the ground and scrubbed them as well as they could. Howard's Ridge Cemetery is located a little north of Ripley, Ohio.

Richard (Dick) Dragoo, 913 N. Harrison St., Rushville, IN 46173, sent several pictures of head stones of Dragoos buried in the Yorktown, IN Cemetery. One of the stones was for Louisa, daughter of Belteshazzar and Sarah Barrett. Since Dick took the picture the stone has broken off and the piece is lying beside its base. Louisa was born in 1844 and died in 1860. Since she died in her teens I do not think that she had issue. If no one else is interested in restoring this stone Dick will see that something is done to remedy the situation. Write to Dick if you are interested in helping in this matter.

Vi Parsons, P.O. Box 3461, Yuba City, CA 95992, writes the Dragoo-Carr newsletter which she sends to us in exchange for our newsletter. In the last issue she published census forms for Joseph Dragoo and his second wife Mary Alice Pogue. I believe that Joseph was the son of Jacob Dragoo who was the son of William (Indian Billy)Dragoo. In the 1910 census for Delaware County, OK, Joseph is listed as head of house male Indian, age 63, His wife, Alice is listed as his second wife and they had been married for 15 years. Some children are listed: Leweth (Nancy Luetta) age 12, born in OK, Rosa Pogue, stepdaughter, female white age 20 born in MO, Mary Magdalene Pogue, daughter of Rosa, female white born in OK. There were 6 children in all of whom 5 were still living.

By the 1920 census Mary Alice Pogue had left Joseph and was the head of the household. She claimed to be widowed but Vi writes that that is not so. He went to live with John and Nancy (Dragoo) Carr until his death in 1923 in Arkansas.

I found it very interesting that he was listed as an Indian. Was his mother, Susanna Bright,an Indian? I remembered reading a letter written in 1921 by E.B. Wall, an early Dragoo researcher of CA, about an Indian family named Dragoo who had camped in back of her father's store in Miami, OK. Could this have been the family of Joseph?

In an earlier newsletter Vi wrote about some of her relatives arguing over whether they were of Indian or French extraction. Perhaps they were of both.

TREASURY REPORT

Our treasurer, Carol Van Sickle, has prepared a very detail financial report of 6½ pages! She sent the check register, summary report by year, by month and by account. Since it is impossible to include all of this in our modest newsletter I will edit the check register here. If anyone wants all 6½ pages I will send them. Carol was elected to be our treasurer at the 1992 reunion and she opened a bank account in September of 1992. All of the officers signed a bank card and that took time hence the beginning in September.

Several members have returned the Family Line sheet that I have been distributing and I thank them for taking the time to do this. Following are excerpts from them.

Robert Eugene Dragoo, 1401 N CR 650 E, Selma, IN, 47383 is a retired school teacher. His wife Donna Ruth was also a teacher before she retired. They have three children: Gerald R. Dragoo, Clifford C. Dragoo, and Bruce Dragoo. Robert's parents were Nettie Opal Carnes(1893-1984) and Marion Goldie Dragoo (1896-1992) His brother is DFA member Richard Lee Dragoo (see page 222). His grandparents were Frank Abner (his tombstone reads Frank A. Dragoo) 1859-1945 and Mary E. Mock, 1868-1958. Other forbears are: Andrew, Belteshazzar, Andrew, Belt. I.

He wrote, "I graduated from high school in Delaware Co., in 1941 and went into the Army to Italy and was discharged in Feb. 1946. I married Donna Ruth Huffer in Oct. of 1947. I went to Ball State College and graduated in 1949. I taught in CO for two years and returned to IN and retired from teaching in 1983. I have 3 sons: one a state policeman, one a dentist, and one an assistant high school principal. I have seven grandchildren.

Dixie Lea Jackson Wright, 3010 N. 69th, Kansas City, KS, 66109 is a semi-retired bartender and has 3 children by her first husband, Michael Armstrong. They are: Kathy Lynne Armstrong, Michael High Armstrong, and Kristine Elizabeth Armstrong. (See Dixie's family line on the New Members page). Her 90 year old grandmother tells stories about the family and I hope that Dixie will write some of them down for us.

Rae Anne Bassett Grover, 5242 E. Ririe Hwy., Idaho Falls, ID, 83401, is another new member and she writes: "I was born and raised in Southern CA, graduated from Mira Costa High School, Manhattan Beach, CA, in 1957. I worked for Douglas Aircraft Co., Santa Monica, CA, for a year and 4 months. I met my husband while he was in the Marines, stationed at Camp Pendleton. We moved to Idaho Falls in 1959, I have lived here since then. We have 3 children and 12 grandchildren. My favorite things to do at this time in my life is to do research on my genealogy, and to crochet dresses for Barbie dolls. I worked for the City of Idaho Falls for 3 years, then as a bookkeeper for Eastern Idaho Diesel. I quit working in 1978, and have enjoyed being able to stay home. I enjoy my grandchildren and like doing things with them, especially when they are little.

Lois Fern Kirschner Kidd, 9318 US Route 52, Manchester, OH 45144 and her daughter, Catherine Lee Kidd Wilson of Springfield, OH, both wrote very interesting and entertaining stories about themselves. Lois has been very active in the DFA and helped with both of our reunions. Her husband, Ray, sang at the Sunday morning service in 1992 and Lois told about the Ohio River in our Saturday night program in 1994. She wrote about the terrible tornado in Xenia, OH on pages 140-141. The following are exerpts from her story. "I had the happiest childhood anyone could have. I loved being on the farm with all the animals and there were 2 grandparents inour home... Ray worked for the Ohio Air National Guard as an aircraft mechanic. I always stayed home to make sure I heard the girls say their first words and take their first steps. No career could have been as important to me. In April of 1974 the Big Wind came... God showed me that he had spared our lives because he had work for us to do." Lois became very active in her church and her husband became a deacon and a soloist.

"We lived happily in Xenia until May 31st of this year, 1994, when we moved back to my loved hills of Adams Co., OH, overlooking the Ohio River. We are in the process of building a new home and it is almost finished." Ray has retired and our greatest pleasures in life are when our girls and their husbands visit.

Lois's daughter. Catherine, is very interested in genealogy and she and her husband, Nick, enjoy Civil War re-enacting as a hobby.

NEW MEMBERS

James Ewing, 407 Aspen St., Englewood, FL 34223 actually joined our Association in person! He is a retired attorney and practiced in Wheeling, WV for many years. He certainly showed his talent for persistence since my husband and I live way back in the woods with no signs pointing the way. He found out about the DFA in Columbus, Ohio, where he was attending to some business. He is descended from Elizabeth Dragoo Hays the daughter of Elizabeth Straight and John Dragoo. He has a lot of information on his line and I hope that he will soon share it with us. He plans to attend our next reunion in 1996 in Fairmont.

Sandra Williams, 2601 10th St. SW, Calgary, Alberta. Canada T2T 3G9. Sandra and I have been corresponding for several months on a non-membership basis. She got "hooked" on us and joined up. Her line is Betty Jane Swanger and Robert L. Williams, John Miller and Mary E. Richmond, Malinda Reed Miller and Alex Miller, Nancy Dragoo and John Reed, Andrew Dragoo and Mary (Polly) Hardesty, Belteshazzar I. I am sure that she will be hearing from our members who are of the Dragoo-Miller line.

Cindy Dragoo Peter, 4818 So. 66th St., Lincoln, NE 68516. Cindy has not yet told us about her line.

Rae Anne Grover, 5242 E. Ririe Highway, Idaho Falls, ID, 83401. Rae Ann learned about us from our secretary, Gene Watson. She is a long time researcher and has sent a very complete documented family record. Her line is: Vivian Dorothy Redman and Ranald Wesley Bassett, Lilly Mabel Smith and William Redman, Seymour Smith and Mateldia Jane Carr, James Finley Carr and Mary Dragoo, Frederick and Martha Angel Draggoo, Peter and Margaret McCafftery Dragoo. Rae Ann and her husband Larry Eugene Grover have three children: Kimberly, Kevin and Robin. All are married.

Doris Archer, 1605 13th St., Dodge City, KS 67801. Doris's parents, Daniel P. and Ruth Dragoo of Hays, KS, have given Doris a gift subscription to the DFA. Her line is Daniel Paul and Ruth Iseli Dragoo, Frank and Ruth Morgan Dragoo, John Franklin and Antoinette DeArmond Dragoo, Franklin William & Susan Hawk Dragoo, Daniel and Susan Bayne Dragoo, Belteshazzar I.

Phillip Dragoo, 215 Swanee Drive, Goddard, KS 67052. Phillip was also given a gift membership to the DFA by his parents Daniel P. and Ruth Iseli Dragoo. His line is given above under his sister Doris's name.

Dixie Wright, 3010 N. 69th, Kansas City, KS 66109. Dixie learned of us through the Brown County, Ohio, Genealogical Society which is located in Georgetown, OH. She is descended from an orphan grandchild of Benjamin s/o Belt I. His name was Jeremiah Evans. He had a brother Andrew born in 1844 and a sister Eliza (no dates). Their parents, Samuel and Catherine Dragoo Evans died when they were young in 1857 as far as we know. Mahala, Catherine's sister, raised Jeremiah along with her own children. Mahala's husband was Benjamin Franklin Dragoo (her uncle's grandson) To clear up all of this confusion Dixie's line is: Homer Jackson and Joy L. Perry, John L. Perry and Eva A. Evans, Samuel Evans and Catherine Dragoo, BettyCompton and Benjamin F. Dragoo, Belteshazzar I. Dixie had thought that Jeremiah was the nephew of Benjamin Franklin instead of the nephew of Mahala. At any rate they all went to Atchison County, MO in the 1860s. Thanks to the genealogical material donated to the DFA by Alice Duncan and Carol Van Sickle we unraveled the tangled relationship. If any of you know more about this Evans branch let us know.

Vivian Dragoo Estrada, 545 Pershing Dr., San Leandra, CA 94517 Vivian has been given a gift membership from her cousin Nancy Dragoo Mason. I know Vivian's line only from her grandparents and back. They are Andrew & Harriet Brown Dragoo, Benjamin Jr, Benjamin Sr., and Belteshazzar I. Tell us more, Vivian.

OBITUARIES

Arlene Laird, N4419 Laird Rd., Black Creek, WI, 54106, has informed us that her husband, Stephen E. Laird, age 72 passed away unexpectedly at his home on Oct. 12, 1994. He was born January 13, 1922 in Ellington, the son of the late George and Edith (Wege) Laird. He was married April 13, 1968 to E. Arlene Jewell in Fremont, Michigan. He farmed and was a fruit grower in Ellington.

Arlene's line is: Imo Love & Dana Jewell, Violea Charles Jewell & Viola Wiles, William Wiles & Jane M. Dragoo, Jane Barnhouse & Uel Dragoo, Isabella Jones & Jacob Dragoo, Elizabeth Straight & John Dragoo.

She was the youngest daughter of Samuel and Rebecca Dragoo. Her line was: Samuel H., Belteshazzar, Ephraim, Andrew, Belteshazzar I.

Tracey Hanson, 735 Holbrook Ave., Lebanon, OH, 45036, wrote that her aunt who knew about their line passed away after a battle with an infection in her foot and pneumonia. She will be greatly missed and was a significant part of Tracey's family.

Tracey is still trying to trace her ancestors and has been going through her aunt's family album. Tracey's line is: Ronald Lee Dragoo, Harvey A. Dragoo, Stephen S. Dragoo, and probably William who lived in Columbus.

Ruth E. Cloud, 10226 E. Springcreek Rd., Sun Lakes, AZ, 85248, has written that her husband, Joseph Carl Cloud passed away on Nov. 12 after a long illness. He was born in June of 1920. QUERIES

Bill McAfee, 349 Clark St., Grass Lake, MI, 49240, wrote "In Vol. III No. 2, p. 4, you mentioned three Dragoo cousins with the 118th VA Militia Regt. The "E.W." could be our Elide William. Can anybody substantiate or disprove that?

Dean C. Dragoo, 1114 Harrison, Newton, KS, 67114 writes: "I would like to inquire about the circumstances surrounding the reason for the migration of a great number of Dragoos from Brown County, OH, to Atchison County, MO (Tarkio and Fairfax) over more than 100 years ago." Can any one tell Dean why? I assume that there were articles in newspapers extolling the advantages of living in MO; but I have never seen any of them.

Arlene Laird, N4419 Laird Rd., Black Creek, WI 54106, is looking for information on a branch of her family not directly associated with the Dragoo family. She wants to know if any of you know about Mary and Charles Comden of Genesee Co., MI. They were listed when Mary's mother, Lucy (Englebee) Lazell, sold land in Steuben Co., NY in 1863. Did the mother move to and die in MI?

Dorothy Smith, 519 Timber Lane, Grants Pass, OR, 97526, wants to know if any of you have a picture of her husband's great grandfather, Lawson Dragoo (Franklin Wm., Daniel, Belteshazzar I).

Betty Dragoo, 1425 E. 3rd, McMinnville, OR, 97128 writes that new member Robert E. Dragoo, 2039 Kurtz Ave., Pasadena, MD 21122 is the brother of her deceased husband, Roland P. Dragoo. Their line is: Roland Lee, William, Lawson, Franklin Wm., Daniel, and Belt. I Dragoo.

David M. Dragoo, 34 Bobtail Pike, Peru, IN 46970 has sent many pages from The Mellett and Hickman Families Of Henry County, IN. written by Franklin Miller, Jr. of Gambier, OH. We appreciate having all of this information. It is very useful for any queries that we may receive on this line: Frederick David, Rebecca Williams & Samuel H. Dragoo,, Belteshazzar, Ephraim. Andrew, Belt. I Dragoo.

Helen Hosmer, 244 Oak St., Apt., 1C, Montrose, MI 48457 writes that her brother gave her an address for a Larry Drago of Cheshire, CT, that was in an antique Radio Magazine. She wrote to him and told him that her ancestors came from France and her lineage. He wrote to Helen and said, "In 1904, Frances & Emmanuel Drago came to America from Cadiz, Spain (county of La Linia) with 5 sons: Michael, John, Anthony (his dad), Ralph and Louis. They settled in New Haven, Connecticut. His grandparents opened a candy store and pool hall. His grandfather lost everything in the depression of 1929 and committed suicide."

This is the first time that I have heard that Dragos came from Spain as well as Italy. (L.S.)

Marvin Baker,1362 Lundys Ln. Rd., Newark, OH, 43066 and Helen Hosmer did researching to find the biological parents of the husband of one of Marvin's nieces. Marvin wrote 130 letters after he found the names of the parents and finally tracked down the nephew of the mother. Marvin has talked to the mother and found out why she gave up her son for adoption. She had been raped 50 years ago and reported it to the police. She never told her children who were born later. The mother and the half brothers and sisters are planning a big reunion and are happy to welcome the long lost son and brother into the family. Marvin feels well rewarded for all of his efforts.

EDITOR'S NOTES...

We have received many pages of research done by Virginia Jenkins, now deceased, via Marvin Baker. He received this wealth of material from Virginia's daughter, Pat Ozmun, 330 Earhart St., Medford, OR, 97501. We owe Pat and Marvin many thanks for this information.

Virginia Jenkins lived not far from Marjorie Poole so they often exchanged research. Many of Marjorie's findings came from Virginia. In looking over Virginia's correspondence with Marjorie, I found a letter written by Marjorie that stated that a Dragoo coat-of-arms was actually for an English family named Dragon who lived in the 1400-1500s. The description given was for the one that we have been using! I knew there were other Dragoo coats-of-arms, but had not questioned the one that we have been declaring as our own. As a result of this revelation I am using the other well known one until someone proves that one is a mistake also.

In addition to the research from Virginia Jenkins we have received 45 pages of research done by Effemey Blair (E.B.) Wall from DFA member Nancy Fratt. Nancy spent time last fall in the Los Angeles Library and copied some of Wall's research. The pages that she sent to us were originally given to her by another DFA member, Lois Baum. You will note how cooperative and generous you members are!

I must not forget to mention that we also received the research of Dortha Wennihan who was descended from Benjamin Franklin Dragoo s/o Milton s/o Daniel s/o Belt I. This was sent by new member John Dragoo of Burlington Junction, MO, to Marvin Baker who sent it on to us.

Vi Parson of Yuba City, CA goes researching often and sent odds and ends that she came across. She also gave us more research on her grandfather Joseph s/o Jacob s/o Indian Billy.

One of these days I will get all of this wonderful material sorted out and put in the right note books. Thanks to all of you for sending so much and enriching our library.

Please notice in the heading that we do not stay in Florida as long as we formerly did. We have been returning to W. Va. in April for the last two years and will continue to do so if the weather is good then.

SECRETARY'S REPORT BY JACKIE WATSON

Our secretary, Gene Watson, is busy with taxes (as are many of us) so his wife, Jackie, wrote about their activities since the Ohio- Kentucky reunion in 1994.

Gene sends in a roll of film to be developed and receives it back developed with a negative and a disk with the pictures that can be pulled up on a computer. The computer then can produce a picture on a printer. It is possible then to type below the picture describing it whether it be of a person or a place. Jackie feels that this is the answer to the Dragoo Scrapbook that Gene and she have been asked to make for the DFA. She hopes that you members will send negatives to Gene and Jackie Watson,3107 Palomas Circle, Farmington, New Mexico, 87401, so that a very complete scrapbook can be put together.

Perhaps, copies can be made available to members in the not too distant future!

Gene and Jackie have been corresponding with many DFA members and have the following to report:

Claude C. Dragoo's wife, Jane, has had some heart problems and is not a candidate for open heart surgery. Claude and his daughter, Barbara Moore, have been working on their genealogy and will have a more complete history for the DFA in the future.

They have also had several letters from William (Bill) McAfee of Michigan and Daniel and Ruth Dragoo of Hays, Kansas. Marcia Conners has sent them several letters with information. Other members who have sent information for Gene's computer are: Dixie Lea Wright of Kansas City, Kansas,and Sandra Williams of Calgary, Alberta, Canada. A new member, Linda Wilson of Decatur, Illinois has also sent lots of information.

Jackie also explained her relationship to Robert E. Dragoo of Pasadena, Maryland. He is the nephew of Jackie's father (Edgar Earl Dragoo). Robert's father is Roland Lee Dragoo.

Jackie further stated how she got in touch with Robert. His sister, Helen Nixon, (now deceased) came and stayed with Jackie's family sixty years ago. In 1991 Jackie called Helen in Tacoma, Washington, to find out more about the family. Helen sent lots of information on all of her brothers and sisters and in the information was the address of Robert. Jackie called him and sent him information on our last reunion. He attended and plans to be at our next one in 1996 in Fairmont, West Virginia, to be held in the Holiday Inn there.

Jackie also called James Roland Dragoo in Sacramento, California, recently and he told her that he and his family plan to attended the 1996 reunion. James has so much interest in the DFA that he joined up for three more years!

Others who hope to attend the 1996 reunion are: Ruth Cloud and her two daughters, Mary Olsen and Joanne Aussem; (my sister and nieces).

We hope that all of you will keep our 1996 reunion in mind as you plan your summer for that year. Our reunion will be the third weekend in July at the Holiday Inn in Fairmont, W.Va.

The following is from our 1996 Family Reunion chairman, Marvin Baker, 1352 Lundys Lane, Newark, OH, 43055. (Write or call him with suggestions.)

We still haven't mentioned all of the Dragoos that attended our reunion in Kentucky-Ohio last year! Nancy Dragoo Mason of Paris, KY, wrote recently to tell us that the following people attended the Ripley and Logan's Gap reunion: Melbourne and Emily Dragoo, Florence and granddaughter Sharon of Cynthiana, Ken. Jake Dragoo Boyle and wife Agnes of Paris, KY; and Ralph Dragoo and wife Gladys of Dayton, OH. Nancy also wrote that she is getting her genealogy organized and typed up by her daughter, Beverly, a nurse at the V.A. hospital in Lexington, so Nancy can join the DAR Chapter in Paris, KY. We have other DFA members who wish to join the DAR too.

One of the other members who wishes to join the DAR is Sandra Williams, 2602 10 Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2T 3G9. She has been in touch with Betty Dragoo Campbell of Ripley, OH, who is the regent for the DAR Chapter in Ripley.

Sandra wrote answering my question as to how she came to live in Canada. Below is her answer and also a query about her ancestor Andrew son of Belteshazzar:

After graduating from Indiana University, Bloomington, In. I moved to Fort Lauderdale, Florida. In 1983 after saving for a holiday, I went to Greece and Egypt. In the airport awaiting the flight from Athens to Cairo the flight was delayed. After a couple of hours a line formed at the gate where we were suppose to board, but I had not heard the announcement. I went to the last person in line and inquired, "Excuse me, is this the flight to Cairo?" The gentleman said "Yes." I found out he was from Canada and we talked casually while we waited to board. As we approached the stewardess she took his ticket and said, "Thank you Mr. Williams." Then she took my ticket and said, "Thank you Ms. Williams (my maiden name). Oh, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, then you'll be needing a seat together." I said, "Yes please," as a joke and three years and one day later we were husband and wife. My husband is a native Calgarian, hence my living here. But the real kicker (I always say our descendants would hate us if we didn't clarify it all), besides our names both being Williams, both our fathers were Robert and they both worked for the post office.

I only have two Dragoo's in my line Andrew and daughter Nancy, who was mothered by Mary Hardesty, Andrew's first wife. I am enclosing a copy of Andrew's will, naming several of his children, Nancy's death certificate, and cemetery readings for the Dragoo's and Reed's (Nancy's married name, people who also came from Brown Co., Ohio) in two different cemeteries in Yorktown, In. Please let people know they can contact me if they descend through Andrew.

Also I was hoping you would print the following query in the next newsletter possible.

Looking for primary documentation that will link Andrew (1782-1865) to father Belteshazzer (1751-1836). Since there is no will for Belteshazzer I would need a church baptismal record or something similar. Andrew is suppose to have been born in Fayette Co., Pa. Please send any correspondence to Sandra Williams, 2602 10th Street SW, Calgary, Alta. T2T-3G9, Canada

NEWS ABOUT OUR MEMBERS - Mary Virginia Sprouse, Rt. 2, Box 358, Clarksburg, WV 26301, has written a book on the history of the community that she lives in, just outside Clarksburg, WV, in spite of a severe problem with her eyes. She writes with a tiny light behind her. She is descended from the Straight and Prickett families as well as the Dragoo family. Her courage in spite of adversity is a reflection of her frontiersmen heritage.

June and Elmer Dragoo, 335 Avery St., Ashland, OR, 97520, are helping to start a family newsletter and reunion for the Haley family, Elmer's mother's people. His father was Isaac Robert McCollum Dragoo and his mother was Alice F. Haley. I sent them an article on how to start a family newsletter that Ron Bowers of Baker, OR,had copied for the DFA. We are always willing to help preserve any family's history. Thanks, Ron, for your help.

Farewell

To Anne Flawher

From Hannah Carson

Lee wrote that the original of this letter is temporarily in his possession. He will be returning it soon to its owner in Idaho.

He states that Hannah Carson is not listed among the children of Belteshazzar and Martha Hannah Dragoo in the DFA literature. Hannah tells in the letter about the death of their sister Peggy who is listed as Belteshazzar's daughter in the family history. The letter and the DFA listing differ by fifteen days (1-1-1851 & 1-15-1851).

Change that death date in your records. The DFA listing that Lee is referring to is the Outline of Dragoo Family in America from London, England by the Society of Genealogists, Chaucer House, Malet Place, London, W.C.I., England - Feb. 5, 1951. (There are many mistakes in this publication. L.S.) Thank you, Lee, for pointing this out. Joyce Page sent copies of the original death records of the Shakers and it does state the death date of Peggy as Jan. 15, 1851.

Lee asks, "Who is Hannah Dragoo Carson? Have I discovered another family member?"

If any of you can explain who Hannah is let Lee and the DFA know.

If you do not know Lee's line, he has included it in his letter: Stephen Lee Epps s/o Marilee Stephenson Epps d/o M.O. Stephenson s/o S. M. Stephenson s/o Eleanor Stephenson Flaugher d/o Anne/Anna Dragoo Flaugher d/o Belteshazzar Dragoo.

GENEALOGICAL CHALLENGES

BY NANCY B. FRATT

For many years articles and histories have assembled a family for William Dragoo, said to be born in 1747 on Staten Island. He married in 1777 Temperance Dickerson, daughter of Joshua/Joashua Dickerson and Martha Whettem/Whetten/Whitten, and she was born in 1756, dying by 1822 when she did not sign a deed from William to his sons.

William had nine known children, and was said to die 1824 in Fayette Co., KY, which had been Kentucky Co., VA, or by another version in Monongalia Co., VA(WV).

His son, William, born 8 Feb. 1789 (Bible) married Elizabeth Prunty 25 July 1811 Harrison Co., VA(WV) (Harr.Co. Marr.Rec.) She was born 31 Jan. 1793 Harr. Co., and they were parents of twelve children (Bible Rec.). William died 28 Aug. 1838 Delaware Co., IN and was buried in Beech Grove Cemetery, Muncie, IN (Cem. Rec.) On 21 Dec. 1854 Elizabeth Dragoo aged 61, died and was buried in the lot with William. Her age corresponds with her birthdate.

The youngest child of William and Elizabeth (Prunty) Dragoo was Emily, born 4 April 1834 Harrison Co. (Bible & Death Rec.) In 1855 Emily married Pearson Wallace Franklin in Muncie, and they were the compiler's great grandparents, all details of the family and their deaths are found in Muncie and Delaware Co. records.

The purpose of this article is to point out what a challenge the first two paragraphs on William have been and how elusive all the sources and records to prove them.

His 1747 birth was not found either on Staten Island or anywhere. His wife Temperance Dickerson is named in the Family Bible of their son John (born 1783 in PA), but to say she had died when her signature was not found on her husband's deed is simply speculation. Despite laws, many deeds were not signed by wives.

She has not been found as the daughter of a Joshua with any spelling. Dickersons were in Pennsylvania, and a Joshua was in Fayette Co. when Dragoos were there, but he had no recorded daughter Temperance.

No records have been found anywhere for the surname Whettem or Whetten. The most likely, Whitten, shows no family with a girl Martha married to a Dickerson. Remembering the time frame, there were not a lot of records in many places in the mid--late 1700s, but if those first two paragraphs are correct, where was the information found, why does no one cite the sources??

The final challenge is to the statement that William Dragoo married second, after Elizabeth Prunty, an Elizabeth Crantz, and it was she who died in Delaware Co. IN in 1854.

Two DAR applications for the service of William show in 1927 that he had only the first Elizabeth as wife, and in 1970 that he had the second wife as well. If the marriage was found between 1927 and 1970, someone must have or know the location of the Marriage Record. If there is a family Bible or other privately-held proof of this marriage, one can only hope it will be shared. No Crantz family or marriage has been found either in Virginia or in Indiana.

This compiler is anxious for the truth about these people to be written. If incorrect conclusions or guesses have been made, let them be changed so we do not perpetuate facts for which there is no record and perhaps no truth. All corrections and additions are welcomed, and any help will be deeply appreciated.

Nancy B. Fratt, 735 Castleman Drive, Westfield, NJ 07090.

TIME TO SYNCHRONIZE OUR WILLIAM DRAGOO RECORDS

from Vi Parsons

John W. DRAGOO, born 17 June 1858 - died 14 October 1860

The William "Indian Billy" Bible records list William and Rebecca MATHENY's children through their last child Rhoda, born in 1838. Following that is an entry of John W., born 1858. A Mr. George Towne of California has entered him in the L.D.S. Ancestral File records as also being a child of William & Rebecca. William died 21 February 1856, two and one-half years before John W. was born. Marion County, W. Virginia death records confirm that he was the son of Rhoda and William B. DRAGOO, who married in 1857. He was the grandson of William and Rebecca. I credit the Newark, Ohio researchers Marvin BAKER, Maxine FISHER and Del OSBORN, who brought this to my attention. Many of you probably noticed this, also. Before you forget, make this change on your records. I tried to contact Mr. Towne, but my letter was returned. I am in the process of providing the proper documentation to the L.D.S. Family History Center in Salt Lake City, Utah to correct this entry in their files. I need to provide them with a documented source of the death, such as a photocopy of the Marion County records, cemetery records, and/or a picture of the headstone, if any. Your help is appreciated. If you would like a copy of William and Rhoda's 1857 marriage license send me a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Vi has been active on our behalf and has registered the DFA in the Genealogical Helper Magazine which is published by Everton Publishers in Utah. It has a circulation of 48,000 members. Our article will appear in the March/April,1995 issue under "Family Associations". They will list our 1996 date and place of Reunion.

Vi wishes to correspond with all descendants of William "Indian Billy" DRAGOO. She and several others are compiling records for a book to be displayed at the 1996 Reunion.

Vi recently came across the book KETCHUM-MCCORKELL PIONEERS, Middlewestern Families of Lillias Jacinth Burton, written by Robert P. Addleman-published in 1993.

Our DFA member, Daniel Paul Dragoo of Hays, Kansas is the younger brother of John Morgan Dragoo who married into the McCorkell family. Daniel's and John's parents were Ruth Morgan Dragoo (an early Dragoo researcher) and Frank Wm. Dragoo s/o Cynthia DeArmond(we have Antoinette DeArmond) andJohn Dragoo s/o Franklin Wm. s/o Daniel s/o Belteshazzar.

John M. Dragoo was born March 14, 1915 and died November 20, 1989 at the age of 74. He was born in Chicago, IL, and moved to Seneca, MO, in the 1930s. He was a retired plumber and electrician. He married Verna Catherine McCorkell in 1934. She died Jan. 22, 1972. His second wife was Lolita Kirk who may still be living. He had three children (probably by his first wife): John R. Dragoo of Seneca, and two daughters, Joan Keilenberger of Tulsa, OK and Susanne Kelly of Neosho, MO.

Vi noticed discrepancies about our original Dragoo ancestors from France in this book; but it is in print and being distributed. She wrote to Mr. Addleman and he stated that he included the Dragoo information as he received it without verification.

She and her twin sister attended the KY-OH reunion as well. Vi and I finally exchanged checks so that we could become official members in each other's associations. Greg has been researching his wife's family for only a year; but has amassed a wealth of documents and pictures. He has copied all of this for the DFA. We have gained a great deal of new information from him. Lana's father is the third generation of Dragoos to raise sheep and work the old homestead. O.F. Dragoo registered for the homestead in 1910. The family story goes that he went west for his health. He graduated from Purdue University in 1886, so he was an educated man. His home in SD became a halfway house for travelers. He kept a register which was filled with hundreds of names. His sod house has been restored by the Lodgepole. SD, Historical Society and visitors are welcome. It is located 8 miles south of Lodgepole, SD.

Greg would like to have good solid documentation for Edgar J. Dragoo b. 8/14/05 in Delaware Co., IN; Orloff Field Dragoo b. 10/09/1858 in Muncie, IN; Lemuel Dragoo b. 04/08/1826 in VA/WV; Peter Dragoo b. 06/08/1793 in VA; and William Dragoo b. 1747. He hopes to find enough documentation so that his wife, Lana, and their daughter will be eligible to join the DAR. He needs your help!

Donna Schimeck, 9356 Canter Drive, Elk Grove, CA, 95624, is still researching her ancestry and has found very good information on her great grandfather, William Dragoo 1842-1903. He was a charter member of the Masons in Morris, MN, as well as one of the organizers of Stevens County in which Morris is located. He was a hardware dealer and a tinsmith and was the first sheriff of the county. Like most men he had his peculiar habits of character. He carried with him an air of mystery and secretiveness to an unusual extent. If you met him on the street and said "good morning," he would pause, look up and down the street as though to make sure that no one was about to overhear his reply, and then in a hoarse whisper say. "Yes, it certainly is a fine morning." The above comment on William was made by Chief Justice Calvin L. Brown in Historical Collections of Stevens County, MN

Donna has not yet learned the parentage of William. We thought we had it figured out that he was the son of John s/o Frederick s/o Peter b. 1744; but Donna received a death certificate for William which gave his father's name as William and his mother's name was Mary Anderson. This is very puzzling, perhaps one of you DFA members knows about William and Mary Anderson Dragoo.

The following letter is from Lois Baum, 6200 Oregon Avenue, N.W. Apt. 406, Washington, D.D., 20015. She has faithfully indexed our newsletters year after after. She now hopes that someone else will continue that task.

Enclosed is ....the Index for Vol VI. I have enjoyed working on the Indexes and each time have learned more about the family and about indexing this type of a family news letter. I hope I can attend the reunion in WVA. In the past I have spent many long hours in the Court House at Morgantown and the library in Fairmont. Each time I know there are things that I have missed. As you may know I am still not convinced that the John Dragoo who married Ann Prickettr is the same as the one who was married to Elizabeth Straight. I believe he was a son of John and Elizabeth (Straight) Dragoo.

I have a correction for an item on p. 213 "Retired". John and I were never operators of a summer camp in New Hampshire. John retired as a Colonel from the US Army. He was in the Corps of Engineers. We were members of the Ragged Mtn Fish and Game Club for 17 years but never operated the "camp". We moved to Knollwood, a private retirement home in Washington, D.C. 1 November 1993. During the thirty years in the Military he saw overseas duty in Alaska before WWII when Alaska was not a State. During WWII he served in the South Pacific from New Guinea, to the Phillipines, and was on his way from Okinawa to the States for Recreational Leave after 21 months when the war ended. He served a year in Korea after the War was over. We've lived in Virginia, South Carolina, Missouri, Kansas, France, Germany, Washington, Nevada; Illinois, California. We grew up in Wisconsin and will celebrate our 56 wedding anniversary this year.

I was born in Montana. My father was born in Minnesota and my mother in Colorado. My Dragoo line is through my father whose mother was Lucinda Amelia Prickett dau of Nimrod Prickett b. 1824 in Brown Co., OH; d. 1899 in Arapahoe, NE. and her mother was Isabel Dragoo, b. 1828 in Monongalia co., WVA dau of Jacob Dragoo and Isabella Jones. She d. 1906 Arapahoe, NE. I am interested in corresponding with others from the Jacob Dragoo—Isabella Jones line; John Dragoo—Ann Prickett line and Elizabeth Straight line.

Again thank you for all your efforts on the behalf of the Dragoos. The enclosed Index is the last one I plan to do for the Dragoo Family News. There must be someone who would like to take over beginning with Vol VII.

We thank you, Lois, for indexing our newsletters for so many years.

You and your husband certainly had an interesting career. I am sorry that I misunderstood your connection with the Ragged Mtn. Fish and Game Camp and am glad that you have cleared that up.

As Marvin Baker recently wrote (after I wrote his address wrong twice in the last newsletter) the only people who don't make mistakes are the ones who do nothing!

EDITOR'S NOTES...

Several of our members have gone to the Latter Day Saints research library in Salt Lake City, Utah, this spring to learn more about their ancestry and have sent us a wealth of material.

Nancy Fratt of Westfield, NJ was there in March looking for information on the family of William s/o William (1747-1824) She copied documents about other branches as well (see page 251) and sent them on to us. We appreciate your efforts, Nancy.

Sandra Williams of Calgary, Alberta, Canada went to Salt Lake in April and found documents that she was looking for (see page 257).Thanks to you too, Sandy.

Vi Parsons of Yuba City, CA, went to Salt Lake in May and she hasn't had time to write us about what she found there. She and I have exchanged all of our back newsletters now and I have learned a great deal about her branch of the descendants of Indian Billy s/o John (1748-1824).

All of the above material is filed in the proper notebooks and I am ready to answer questions from any of you on it.

Michael Dragoo of Texas, son of long time member Bill Dragoo of Sinton, TX, finally got a group of DFA members together and took them on a tour of France. We got post cards from them (see page255) from different areas of France. I believe that the group consisted of the following: Michael (our president) and his wife Martha Dragoo of Colusa, CA; Lyle and Carol Dragoo of Salem, OR; Douglas Carlson of Minneapolis, MN; and his mother Louise Carlson of Edina, MN. We want a full report after you all get rested up.

Donna Schimeck, 9356 Canter Drive, Elk Grove, CA, 95624, wishes to attend our 1996 reunion in Fairmont, WV, and needs a ride since her husband will be unable to go with her. If any of you Californians would like a traveling companion let Donna know.

Donna also wrote that her father, Robert L. Dragoo, received an inquiry from Oregon regarding a missing Robert Dragoo who has $600 in unclaimed funds coming to him. This Robert lived at 7166 SE Clatsop, Portland, OR, 97026. Perhaps one of you does know who this Robert is. Write to Donna or me to learn how this money can be claimed.

DON'T FORGET OUR 1996 REUNION IN FAIRMONT, WV, ON JULY 19, 20, and 21. If you want more information on the area and on West Virginia,write to: West Virginia - It's You! Dept. ASI, 501 Avery St., Parkersburg, WV 26101-5150

Among the many documents that Nancy Fratt found in the Family History Library in Salt Lake City was a court case in Monongalia County (W) VA, concerning a logging dispute involving one James Hayes. This case is from Records of the District, Superior and County Courts, Vol. 4, 1800-1810, comp. Melba Pinder Zinn.

I was particularly interested in this case because disputes over timber and saw mills still go on today. My husband, Kenneth, and I have had problems with timberers and with saw mill owners. We have a good many acres in forest and sell some trees now and then.

I assume that the James Hayes in this case was the husband of Elizabeth Dragoo, d/o John and Elizabeth Straight Dragoo. John and Peter Dragoo were no doubt the sons of John and Elizabeth Dragoo. They were young men and just starting out in life. John later married Mary Coverdill in 1805, and Peter married Ann Prickett in 1802. This Ann Prickett was a cousin of the Ann Prickett who married his father. Margaret Ballah's parents were Elizabeth Dragoo and Jacob Straight who was killed by Indians in 1786 when his sister, Elizabeth was kidnapped and later killed.

The court case follows: 122a - 1802, Monongalia County Court. James Hayes summoned to answer Benjamin Reeder and John Evans, Jr. in a plea of trespass on the case and $1,000 damage, 31 October 1800. Evans' and Reeder's complaint: They agreed with Hayes to furnish and deliver saw logs to their jointly owned mill and Hayes would saw all the logs they could deliver and attend the mill and work the mill "with diligence and care and to the utmost advantage" and pile and stack the plank so as to avoid waste, for which Hayes would receive 14 pence for every one hundred feet of plank sawed, secured and "sticked" in workman like manner. They complained that Hayes did not complete his contract and therefore they bring suit.
Deposition of William Holt heard at the home of Henry Dering on 13 August 1802: He said he lived at the mill when Hayes "took part of a contract I had in the mill, that is to say the sawing part, from 27 January 1798 to 1 April and I was to furnish logs by consent of Reeder, Hayes and myself. I afterwards heard by Hayes and Evans that Hayes had made a new contract." He said he furnished logs for the mill after giving up his contract and they were all good logs except one that was wind-shaken. He said logs were furnished by Capt. Evans, Mr. Jolliffe and some were hired to be cut and they all seemed to be good saw logs. He said Hayes was to butt the logs and stick the plank for 14 pence per hundred, which was 2 pence more that (than?) he was paid. He said the carriage on the mill was out of order once while he worked her, but was repaired and he did not know if the carriage was ever out of order while Hayes worked her. He said he believed that Hayes understood the management of a mill, but did not understand keeping a mill in order or how to repair a mill. He said Hayes hired different men such as John Dragoo, Peter Dragoo, Jacob Pindall and a Negro man who may not have been experienced sawyers, but Hayes was generally at the saw mill or grist mill. He said the saws were generally good and that he "never put up plank after the owner throwed it down."Account of grain received from Paw Paw Mill by Benjamin Reeder: 30¼ bushels wheat at divers times, 172 bushels of corn at divers times; 27 3/4 bushels of rye at divers times." Henry Dering, George Hite, Frederick Gibler, Thomas Doolittle, William Hoult, Levi Morgan, Morgan Morgan, Stephen Morgan, James Jolliffe and William Jolliffe summoned to testify in behalf of Evans and Reeder, 4 April 1801 through 28 October 1802. William Fleming, Alexander Fleming, Henry Batten, Augusta Ballah, Nimrod Evans, William Hayes, Benjamin Hayes, Archibald Shuttlesworth, Peter Dragoo, Jacob Dragoo, Uriah Morgan, John Dragoo, Adam Camp, Jacob Pindall Jr., and Rawley Evans summoned to testify in behalf of Hayes, 4 April 1801 through 24 March 1802. "We the jury find for the defendant," William Johnson, foreman. "We the jury find for the plaintiff $4.17 damages," Amos Robbarts, foreman.

MORE ABOUT JAMES HAYES

No doubt some of you can spot other Dragoo relatives among the names of witnesses in this case. Let me know if you do.

One of our members, James Ewing, 407 Aspen St., Englewood, FL, 34223, wrote an account of James Hay(e)s and his family for the Wetzel County, WV History Book some years ago. I copied it some time ago before James became a member of the DFA and have sent it to several members during the years that I have been the editor of our little newsletter. I believe this is a good place to put it in the newsletter for all of you to read.

JAMES HAYS FAMILY - James Hays was born near Winchester, Virginia, on October 15, 1772, oldest son of eight children of William and Susannah Hays. Shortly thereafter the family moved west and settled near present Mannington, then in Monongalia County.

Elizabeth Dragoo was born April 29, 1774, on Finche's Run, about six miles northwest of Fairmont(WV), the daughter of John and Betsy (Straight) Dragoo. When she was twelve years old, she heard her mother scream for help and ran toward the cornfield where her mother and brother, Billy, were working. She was frightened and hid before she got there and the Indians did not find her. She saw her mother and brother kidnapped and saw her uncle killed.

James Hays and Elizabeth Dragoo were married in 1792, set up housekeeping along Buffalo Creek near his parents, cleared and farmed the land and had five children born to them.

In 1805, James Hays took his family across the ridge and laid claim to land on the South Fork of Fishing Creek, then in Ohio County. They were the first settlers in the area and called the settlement LOT. Many years later the name was changed to JACKSONBURG. In 1814 he was issued patents by the Govneror of Virginia giving him title to 400 acres at Hickory Camp and Slipy Ford. In 1817 and 1818 he was issued government patents for 400 more acres and he bought more land from individuals. He built a mill and prospered. Four more children were born to them. They lived there until they died, she on July 7, 1848 and he on June 8, 1860. They are buried on the home farm in a cemetery on the north side of W. Va. Route 20, between twin bridges at Jacksonburg.

Two of their children, Sarah and James N. died unmarried.

1. Levi married Annie Jack and lived near Wileyville.
2. Elizabeth married William Straight and stayed in the Jacksonburg neighborhood.
3. Suzannah married Elisha Ferral.
4. John Evans married (1) Rachel Sharpneck and (2) Mary Feral and lived nearby.
5. Giley married William Anderson, lived on Knob Fork and then in New Martinsville, but in 1870 their whole family had left Wetzel County.
6. Edmund W. married Susannah Lantz and moved to Minnesota. One son, Ezra, remained in Wetzel County, the rest went West.
7. Matilda married Richard Anderson and stayed on the home place.

James and Elizabeth Hays grandchildren whether named Hays or Straight or Ferral or Anderson married and have descendants in Wetzel County. These families and those of Willey, Morgan, Lantz, Hailey, Henthorn and Detwyler, and undoubtedly many others, can trace a line of ancestry to the first settlers of LOT, and through Mrs. Hays to Betsy Dragoo whose tomahawked and scalped body was found in 1786 along the North Fork of Fishing Creek where her Shawnee kidnappers and murderers had left it. Submitted by James R. Ewing, great grandson of William and Gilley Hays Anderson.

LEBANON, OHIO,DRAGOOS

After our 1994 reunion Wayne and Carol Van Sickle spent a week in the area visiting historical sites and doing research in libraries. They included Lebanon, Ohio,in their travels (where Belteshazzar and members of his family lived in a Shaker colony). They did some research there and found five interesting newspaper articles.

I must not forget to mention that one of our members, Tracey Hanson lives in Lebanon and has written to us often in the hopes that we can help in her search for her ancestor, Frank or William, who lived most of his life in Columbus in the last century.He still remains a mystery but his descendants were highly visible in the area of Lebanon, Ohio.

Three of the articles are about Stephen Dragoo, Tracey's great grandfather, the other two are obituaries of Harvey, Stephen's son, and Evelyn Dragoo, Harvey's wife. They are as follows from the Western Star, Lebanon, OH:

Under Water Mixing - Lebanon Man Recalls Years At Kings Plant - March 19, 1959

There once was a man who figured he had the weapon to end all weapons. That was the bow and arrow. Then along came another fellow who outdid the bow and arrow by employing an explosive powder that could project a missile at extremely high speeds and, when used in the form of a rifle or cannon, was effective against his enemies or, as a shotgun, was good for small game hunting, or, as a pistol, for varying sports.

All of the latter instruments depended on the primer, or cap, for firing, and in the primer was loaded a chemical mixture containing mercury fulminate which has been the main ingredient in primers for over 200 years

And for 45 of those 200 years, Steve Dragoo mixed the priming mixtures used by the Kings Mills plant of the Peters Cartridge Company.

During his days at Kings, Mr. Dragoo was foreman of the mixing department and had very little assistance...partly because the mixing was such a dangerous occupation few men could develop the skill needed to work with the material.

During mixing, a sudden blow or shock or even the smallest static spark could blow everything within the immediate vicinity to unrecognizable bits. Because of the danger of static electricity, much of the work of mixing was done under water.

Mr. Dragoo joined with another expert in the field at Peters, Harley Peck, now better known for his Dahlia and Chrysanthemum farm on the Dayton Pike, north of Lebanon.

Mr. Peck developed a substitute for mercury in the mixing process while with Winchester, continued his research at DuPont, and developed the manufacture at Peters. He erected the isolated mixing department building at Peters, and Mr. Dragoo operated it.

During his career, Mr. Dragoo now 82 and living a quiet life at 310 Watnut St. Lebanon, survived three major explosions at Kings, and was seriously injured in one of those. Several times he contracted mercury poisoning and underwent medical treatment.

Today his greatest joy is visiting with his Kings Mills associates and reminiscing over old times. But one of his greatest joys, too, was acting as Santa Claus for children of Kings Mills, and for more than 15 years, including 1958, he found the time to distribute fruit and candy to children in the Kings area.

Stephen Dragoo Called By Death (1959) Stephen S. Dragoo, an employee and foreman of the mixing department at the old Peters Cartridge Co. at Kings Mills for 45 years, died at his home, 310 Walnut St. early Tuesday following a stroke.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Oswald Funeral Home with the Rev. J. Taylor McHendry in charge. Burial will be in Lebanon Cemetery.

Mr. Dragoo was a charter member of the Eagles Lodge in Lebanon and was also a member of the I.O.O.F. and Elks lodges.............

Mr. Dragoo is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Marlowe Rich of Lebanon and a son, Harvey, with whom he made his home.

Another article about Stephan is as follows: Steve Dragoo, veteran Peters' and Remington-Arms employee will be greatly missed by the youngsters of Kings Mills and by many who have grown up there and shared in his annual Christmas treats.

For many years Mr. Dragoo was the community Santa Claus for a Kings Mills Community Christmas treat party, gathering funds mostly from the redemption of sales tax stamps. He didn't don the regalia of the traditional Santa, but rather, managed to see that Christmas was Christmas for the young folks of his neighborhood. The oldsters looked on in enjoyment too.

He was a guiding light to Boy Scout leadership, also, and the scouts had high esteem and respect for his comradeship.

Men like Steve Dragoo are rare. His life will long be remembered by those who lived in Kings Mills during the past half century. (An editorial in 1959.)

Dec. 15, 1970 - Evelyn Dragoo, 65, 310 Walnut Street, Lebanon, died Thursday, December 10th at her home.

Funeral services were held Monday, December 14th at Oswald Funeral Home with interment in Lebanon Cemetery.

Survivors include: husband, Harvey; a son Ronald (father of DFA member Tracey Hanson. ed.); one grandchild; two brothers, Ellsworth of Lebanon and Elmer of South Lebanon.

September 27, 1978 - Harvey Dragoo, 71, of 925 Carson Dr., Lebanon, died Sunday Sept. 24, at Middletown Hospital. He was retired from General Electric Company.

He is survived by his wife Hallie; one son, Ronald Dragoo of Lebanon; one sister Mrs. Marlo Rich of Lebanon; one grandchild.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. at the Oswald Funeral Home, with interment at Lebanon Cemetery,

The one grandchild mentioned in Evelyn's and Harvey's obituaries must be our member Tracey Dragoo Hanson! If any of you can help Tracey with researching her ancestry, her address is 735 Holbrook Ave., Lebanon, OH, 45036.

A FABULOUS TRIP TO FRANCE

Michael Dragoo, son of long time member, Bill Dragoo, 812 East Fulton Street, Sinton, Texas 78387, finally got a DFA group together for a three weeks tour of France. They were thoughtful and remembered us while seeing all of the sights. Below are the two postcards that we received.

April 26, 1995
We are on the road to Moeze as it is spelled on the French map. Michael is leading our group through the French country routes and everyone is thrilled at the sights. Normandy and the D-Day beaches, Mt. St. Michel and the Loire Valley have been wonderful places to visit. I will try to mail this in Moéze for a special postmark. See you in W V. in 96.

All of us Dragoos and Carlsons are having a great time. Our Texas Mike Dragoo (tour guide) can really speak the French language very well. He gives us a great trip & he is a lot of fun. This is our 10th day - we have 11 days to go. We had a real exciting day at Moéze.

The picture on this postcard is of a street in Sarlat in the Department of Dordogne. This is the area of caverns where early modern man drew pictures on the walls of animals that they hoped to find on their hunts for food. I assume the group visited one such cavern.

Steve Rouiller, 867 Chamise, Redding, CA, 96002, has been given a gift membership by his mother, Kathleen Dragoo Rouiller who has recently joined us. Steve's grandparents are Ruth Augusta John b.Feb. 25, 1917 and David Turritin Dragoo b. July 2, 1915. His great grandparents were Ida Viola Turritin b. Nov. 1, 1876 and Roy R. Dragoo b. May 20, 1876 who was the son of Sarah Garver b. Jan. 7, 1844 and William Dragoo b. Jan. 24, 1842 d. 1903. We are not certain about his ancestry.

Jeff Rouiller, 2498 Celestial, Redding, CA, 96002, has also been given a gift membership by his mother, Kathleen Dragoo Rouiller. She writes that Jeff "is a mirror image" of his great great grandfather, William, with the exception of the beard! We have a picture of William on page 248 of the last newsletter so you can turn to that page and see what Jeff looks like.

Carolyn Steinhaus, 605 Connie Drive, Jackson, MO, 63755. After her husband, Otto, retires on July 1st, they will be living at 904 Red Oak Lane, Columbia, MO. Carolyn found us on the Internet on her computer. After the move to Columbia, MO, she will devote time to genealogy research and tell us more about her line. Her grandparents were Jacob Lorenz Riehm and Julia Augusta Dragoo who lived in Kendallville, IN, where Carolyn also lived and grew up. Julia's parents were Alpheus and Rachel Reed Dragoo of Ashland County, Ohio. Alpheus' parents were Frederick Dragoo and Martha Angel. We are assuming that Frederick was the son of Peter Dragoo and Margaret McCafferty.

Dr. Bobby Dragoo Beall, 101 Holly Court, Terrell, TX, 75160. We have no further information on Bobby's family at this time.

Floyd Dragoo, H C 65, Box 81-H, Edna, TX, 77957. Floyd has not yet sent his family line to us.

Family History Library, 35 North West Temple Street, Salt Lake City Utah, 84150. They have sent an order for our newsletter and I trust that we will soon receive a check. They also wish to microfilm the newsletters that they receive.

WE MUST MAKE SOME DECISIONS! If we give the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints permission to microfilm our newsletters we should protect our association and newsletters. The microfilm of the Family History Center is distributed throughout the world. Do we want to finally incorporate or do we want to copyright our material? We have three people presently working on by-laws so when they are in agreement it would not be difficult to continue on to incorporation. Carol Van Sickle, our treasurer, reports that we have $742 not counting the funds that I have for expenses for correspondence and newsletters. I do not know the cost of incorporation since it varies from state to state evidently.

Let me know your thoughts on this matter. Louise

NEWS FROM OUR MEMBERS

Sandra Williams,2602 10 St., S.W., Calgary, Canada, Alberta T2T 3G9, took a trip with her husband April to the States. Below is part of her letter: "Just back a week from our trip to Utah and Las Vegas. What a whirlwind trip. We put 3,500 miles on the car. I got to go to Salt Lake and do research for about 14 hours... I spent the whole time looking at books that were not available on microfilm and copying segments of county histories for all the 15-20 counties where I know I had ancestors living. This done in preparation of the beginning of the writing of our family history, which I hope to do this fall. I am enclosing what little I had time to find on Dragoos. As you can see I found the documentation for Andrew and Mary's wedding (Andrew s/o of Belteshazzar. This marriage is recorded as follows: Draggue, Andrew Hardeste, Mary 23 June 1802 from Deedbook "1-2-3" 1797 - 1803 Adams Co., OH) That pleased me a lot. Also enclosed is land information for Belteshazzar in Adams County and a biography on him and the family. I believe I got this from a book entitled Historical Collections of Brown County. There is also a tax list from Fayette County PA.."

Sandra also wrote that they did quite a bit of sight seeing before they left Utah for Las Vegas where they had a family reunion with her 2 sisters and parents. It was a surprise celebration in honor of their parents 55th wedding anniversary. Sandy's father said that he had never been so surprised about anything in his life.

Sandy got home just in time to make a genealogical seminar. Later that week she gave classes on how to do research on ancestors in the United States.

Sandy, we appreciate all the information that you sent so soon after your long trip and seminar. If any of you want copies of the documents that she mentioned let me know.

Dragoo Reunion

The Gordon Dragoo family of Lodgepole, South Dakota is hosting a Dragoo family reunion on August 19-20, 1995. The reunion will take place on the land homesteaded by Orloff Field Dragoo in 1910. A Pot Luck dinner will be served at 1:00 PM on August 20. Each family is requested to bring a hot and cold dish.

The Dragoo Farm is located on South Dakota Highway 75 approximately 10.5 miles north of the Hwy 20 & Hwy 75 intersection. From Hettinger, North Dakota take Hwy 75 south for 22.5 miles. The original O.F. Dragoo Sod House is still standing on the property.

There are three motels in the surrounding area. In Hettinger, North Dakota there is the Mirror Lake Lodge, located on E. Hwy 12. Telephone 701-567-4571 for reservations. Hettinger also has the Tip Top Motel, 508 3rd Avenue. For reservations, telephone 701-567-2437. There is the Country Inn Motel in Bison PO Box 220, Bison, South Dakota. For reservations, telephone 605-244-5234. Bison is approximately 25 miles south east of the farm.

For those with motor homes or travel trailers, there will be parking available at the farm. The sites are primitive. Water and electricity for charging batteries is available. Folks with tents are also welcome.

The weather in the north western part of South Dakota during August is generally warm with mid 80's to low 90's during the day and mid 60's to low 70's during the evening and night hours. It is generally dry at this time of year, though afternoon thunder storms are not uncommon.

Both Hettinger and Bison have markets where groceries and other supplies may be purchased. Lodgepole has a gas station, Post Office and does sell propane.

We are looking forward to renewing ties with many of our family and making new bonds with all new family members who attend. We have been working on a family tree and would love to fill in some blank spaces.

A short history of the South Dakota branch of the Dragoo family (Descendants of Wm.)

Orloff Field Dragoo (O.F.) (b.10/09/1858 d. 04/08/49) came to South Dakota in 1910 to homestead land south of Lodgepole. He and his family came via rail road to Hettinger, North Dakota. From Hettinger, they headed south by wagons until they reached the land they were to homestead. He brought his wife Mary (Molly) Swearingen Dragoo (b. 12/23/1889 d. 05/02/51) and 5 children, Amanda, Ray, Kitty, Robert, and Edgar. On this site they built a sod house (soddy). These houses were built using the thick native grasses, cut out and stacked like bricks. The O.F. Dragoo soddy is now owned by the Lodgepole Historical Society and is being preserved and refurbished. This home was a popular place for teamsters to stop and spend the night while making a trip between Bison and Hettinger. Since the home was also on the Bismarck, N.D. to Deadwood, S.D. stage road, the stage often stopped to rest and relax. When O.F. Dragoo died his youngest son took over the farm/ranch. Edgar J. Dragoo (b. 08/14/05 d. 07/21/62) his wife Martha Amanda Taylor Dragoo and 5 children. Marie, Phyllis, Gordon, Maurice and Donald continued to farm and raise sheep. When Edgar died his oldest son, Gordon Ronald Dragoo (b. 04/14/35) took over operation of the ranch. He still lives on the ranch with his wife Medelle Lorraine Dumas Dragoo (Lorrie). His two children Lana and Ronald, and their families live close by .

There are many other attractions in the western South Dakota area. Some of these include Mount Rushmore, Crazy Horse, Devils Tower, the Bad Lands, the Air & Space Museum, the Black Hills, Spearfish Canyon, the sites and gambling in Deadwood, Custer State Park, numerous caves, and many other attractions in Rapid City/Black Hills area. We do hope you will visit us and enjoy our Western hospitality.

EDITOR'S NOTES...

This newsletter has been a very interesting one to put together. We found out several years ago that one branch of our family married into the Younger family (pages 96-98 and 106-108). You will remember that the Younger boys were associated with Jesse and Frank James. I have also heard that a Dragoo married a Dalton who was related to the outlaw Dalton gang. Now, we learn that a Dragoo married Virgil Earp, a lawman! See page 261 for that story.

Did you know that we have a beauty queen in the family? That story is on page 262 along with an "unsolved mystery" story.

On pages 263-264 we have more about the Dragoo trip to France. The page of pictures was sent in by Lyle and Carol Dragoo. It was a great success and Lyle is ready to recommend Mike Dragoo of TX as a tour guide to anyone who is thinking about taking Mike's next tour. I had trouble getting a good copy of Lyle's pictures (in beautiful colors) so I combined the best of two copies and wound up giving Mike and Martha of CA,halos, but at least you can see their faces..

We have 18 new mwmbers since our last newsletter and have received very interesting information from them. Edgar Counts of Oregon, is from a branch of Alice Young Duncan's husband, Dale. Dale's great grandfather,Silas Speer,was Edgar's great great grandfather. Silas lived with Edgar's family in his last years. There are pictures of him and his family on page 269. In the one of him with Edgar and his sister, Velma, you will notice a blanket in the back ground. Silas insisted on having it hung and then was not pleased that it was not hung high enough. Wasn't Edgar a cute little boy?

Several of our members have been on big trips (other than the fabulous France one). See notes from Our Members for that.

We hope that many of you are planning a trip to West Virginia next summer to our 1996 family reunion, July 19, 20, and 21, at the Holiday Inn in Fairmont. I recently spoke to the owner of the John Dragoo farm, and was told that we are welcome to climb the hill to see the Dragoo cemetery there. Just how many of us will want to do that is another story. At least we can drive over to the area and see how John tried to build in a protected area away from marauding Indians. There are so many hills and trees in the area that it was difficult to detect them. In fact, Fairmont is on a hill as is the Holiday Inn which is located just off Interstate 79. In the next newsletter we will tell you how to register for the reunion.

WHO IS ROSELLA DRAGOO?

Ronald K. Dragoo, 2901 S. W. Lane, Topeka, KS, 66611, sent the Dec. 1993,True West magazine with the above question attached. The article that he was referring to was entitled "Wyatt Earp Legendary American, Part V - California and Missouri," by Glenn G. Boyer.

I have always enjoyed reading such magazines and was really interested in this one, naturally. The article was about the Earp family before Tombstone and the gun fight at the OK Corral. They were a tough family and moved to various parts of the country with frequency. The Earp that we are interested in is Virgil.

The magazine article gave a few facts: "The Nick Earps (Virgil's parents) were the first of the family to reach Lamar, MO (in 1869 after leaving their farm in CA)followed by Nick's brother Jonathon Douglas and family and son Newton and his family. The 1870 census lists all of the Earps then there. In Nick's family they were Nick, himself, Ginnie Ann, Wyatt, Warren, Adelia, and a household member, Rosella Dragoo (sic), who was soon to be married to Virgil. Nick Earp presided at that wedding as justice of the peace, as he did at the wedding of Wyatt to Urilla Sutherland, the daughter of an old family friend, Jimmy Sutherland."

I scouted through my notebooks and the only Rosella or Rosilla that I could find was a daughter of Andrew s/o of Belteshazzar I. She was 25 years of age and the only husband named was one James Riley.

I wrote to Lamar, MO, for any information that was available and before I received an answer, I found the book, I Married Wyatt Earp The Recollections of Josephine Sarah Marcus Earp, by Glenn Boyer. This is the same author who wrote the magazine article. I learned a lot more from the book from a footnote, number 5 on page 56. It is as follows: "Virgil Earp, born in Hartford, KY, on July 18, 1843, was in some ways an enigma. While sharing the peregrinations of his family to a large extent, he also went on independent forays that have created mystery about his life. For example, despite parental opposition, he secretly married Ellen Rysdam at Knoxville, Iowa, on September 21, 1861, using his middle name, Walter Earp, and listing her as Ellen Donahoo. They were both convinced the other was dead after he went to the Civil War with the 83rd Illinois Infantry. Ellen married John VonRossen and moved to Kansas City, then Oregon. However she had a daughter by Virgil, a fact that he and the daughter, Nellie Jane, first discovered in 1888. After the Civil War and the Earp family's return to Lamar, MO, from CA, Virgil married Rosella Dragoo at Lamar in 1870, a fact unknown to his 3rd wife, Alvira or "Allie". What happened to Rosella or when Virgil married Allie, if he ever did ceremonially, are unknown, He probably met Allie in 1874."

I received the marriage certificate of Virgil and Rosella and it shows that they married on May 28th, 1870. I also received the census report of 1870 for the Earps,and it states that Nicolas said that he was 58 and was born in NC, his wife, Virginia, 50, born in KY, Warren age 13 was born in IA, Adelia age 9 was born in IA, Virgil age 26 was born in KY and Rosa age 17 was born in France. Evidently the census taker didn't get all of Rosella's name and definitely did not get her birthplace right.

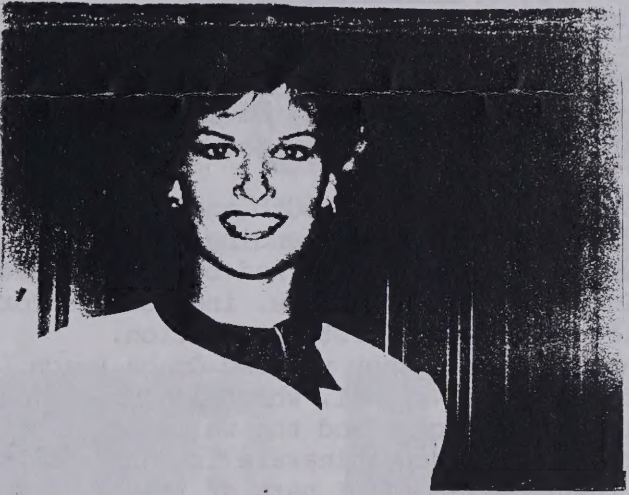
The article that Ronald sent stated that Nick Earp visited in Iowa in 1868-69, before moving to Lamar.One place that they visited was Monmouth which is in Jones County. There were Dragoos in that county at that time so I have written the historical society there, but have not yet received an answer. If any of you can clear up our mystery please write!

FASCINATING FACTS

Mary Virginia Sprouse, Rt. 2, Box 358, Clarksburg, WV 26301, sent us some very interesting information. Her uncle, Charles Edward Anderson (1901-1973) was the grandfather of Kelly Lee Anderson who was the Miss West Virginia in 1982. She went on to become the first runner up in the Miss USA Pageant and was sent to London to the Miss World contest. After that event she and a friend flew to Italy where she met Eileen Ford, the head of a famous modeling agency in New York. The Ford Agency hired her as a model and she worked for them for some time. Later she married a fertility doctor, Dr. Mark Surry and they now live in Beverly Hills, CA. They have two children: Shane Kyle (1989) and Kayla (1991).

Kelly would have been a teacher if she had not been in the right place at the right time when she accidently met Eileen Ford. Below is a picture of her taken by Mary Virginia in 1982.

Kelly Anderson
Beauty Queen and
Eileen Ford Model

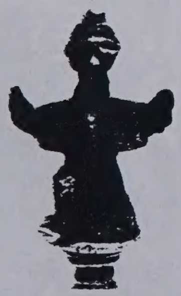


Her line is: John Anderson s/o Charles Anderson s/o Harriet Boord Anderson d/o Ann Straight Boord d/o Alex Straight and Margaret Dragoo. Margaret d/o Peter s/o John & Eliz. Straight Dragoo. Alex s/o William Straight s/o Eliz. Dragoo Straight d/o Peter Dragoo 1726-1774?

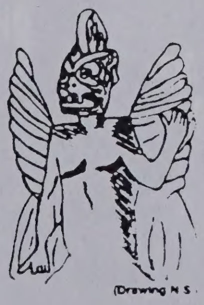
Mary Virginia also sent another story which is almost beyond belief concerning her first cousin, Newton R. Anderson, who is a scientist, missionary, and teacher.

One day he was putting coal in his furnace at home in Buckhannon, WV, and he came upon a lump too large to fit in. He dropped it to break it apart and saw something shiny inside. He chipped away at the piece of coal (from a Buckhannon mine not far from his home) for months and finally exposed an ancient bell. It was identified to be a pagan Babylonian ceremonial bell!

Now how did a Babylonian ceremonial bell wind up in Buckhannon, WV, thousands of years ago and become embedded in organic matter which then became coal? Several museums, including the Smithsonian Institution, would like to have it but Newton still owns it, although it has been on loan in several institutions. A picture of the bell is shown below.



Anderson Bell



Southwest Wind Demon

THIS BELL WAS FOUND INSIDE A LUMP OF COAL

Mr. Newton Anderson found this bell inside of a lump of coal in 1944. The coal was from a mine near his home in West Virginia. The lump was dropped and it broke. Newton found the bell encased inside.

The image on the top bears a striking resemblance to a demon worshipped by the Babylonians. They both have wings, pronounced facial marks and an ibex horn on the head.

TRIP TO FRANCE, APRIL 18 - MAY 9, 1995

The Lyle Dragoos and Louise Carlson were kind enough to send accounts of their trip to France. The primary purpose of the trip, of course, was a visit to Moëze, which is in the area of the origin of our family more than three centuries ago. The town is best known for the Hosanna Cross (see picture on the next page) that is visited by thousands of the faithful on Palm Sunday. The church, of which only the steeple is visible is of Gothic style, which places it in time as at or following the 12th century. Thus it was standing there while our ancestors lived nearby in St. Frou(l) and Nazarre.

This trip included many more sites of interest than just the town of Moëze. In Paris, for example, they visited the tomb of Napoleon in Les Invalides (built by Louis XIV to house disabled veterans of his wars) and the famous Notre Dame Cathedral. This is a 12th century Gothic cathedral famous in its own right but popularized by Victor Hugo in his Les Miserables, from which the Hunchback of Notre Dame was extracted for the American film viewers.

On their return to Paris just before leaving for home they visited the Louvre Museum, where many famous works of art are on display including the Venus de Milo. They viewed Paris from the top of the Eiffel Tower. This had once been the tallest man-made structure and served as proof of the value of steel in the construction of tall buildings.

Since their visit coincided with the 50th anniversary of the end of WW II in Europe, they celebrated the occasion by attending the ceremonies along the Avenue des Champs Elysées where victory parades had been held (even by the Germans) following several wars. They met veterans there, including a former WAC (Women's Army Corps) who showed pictures of the first celebration.

During the trip through France they visited Omaha Beach (the site of the D Day battle), the Abbey of Mont Saint-Michel, which is a medieval structure on an island accessible only at low tide by car, and the walled city of St. Malo. They took in Limoges, a town where world famous chinaware is manufactured. They traveled along the Loire valley, a lush and beautiful part of France, famous for its many Chateaus, among which they visited Chenonceaux, built by Francis I. It was he who brought the Renaissance to France. This castle is especially interesting because one wing extends out over the River Cher. Among others, they visited Amboise, a fortified castle where Leonardo da Vinci spent his last years in voluntary exile.

The trip included travel through the beautiful Dordogne Valley, noted not only for its scenery but for its many caves where ancient man left his cave paintings.

They did many interesting things, including a boat ride through the canals of La Venice Verte (Green Venice), visited a cave and sampled French cooking in an excellent 5 course dinner just to name a few of their activities.

If you can discount their problems when they first arrived and the baggage handlers were on strike, the trip was indeed a memorable experience.

NEW MEMBERS

Clifton L. Draggoo, 3250 Bellefountaine, Hamilton, IN 46742, was given a gift membership from Kathleen Rouiller who came across his name this summer in her travels. His father was Delbert (Adelbert) s/o James s/o William s/oFrederick s/o Peter. His family settled in the area just south of Auburn, IN, in Concord Township. He has a copy of the map of Draggoo lands there,which he copied for Kathleen and she has copied for us.

Kathleen also gave gift memberships to two cousins:
Karen Zeman, 5447 Villas Drive, Bon Sall, CA 92003 and
Susan Perlinger, 14725 Bridgeport Circle, Magalia, CA 95954. They are the daughters of Douglas Frank Dragoo s/o Roy s/o William and Sarah Garver. We are not sure of William's line, but think he is descended from John s/o Frederick s/o Peter. William was very secretive about his roots;however he was a prominent citizen of Morris, MN.

Deanna Hirz, 9712 Rd. M NE, Moses Lake, WA 98837, is descended from Elizabeth Prunty and William Dragoo s/o Temperance Dickerson and William Dragoo (1747-1824). Deanna is interested in corresponding with anyone in her line. See Queries.

Allie Miller, 66 Rossford Ave.,Ft.Thomas, KY 41075. Allie has genealogy records, but has not yet sent them to us.

Dale W. Jenkins, 3028 Tanglewood Dr., Sarasota, FL 34239,wrote that he is related to the Peter Dragaud, Staten Island, through Dragoos in Monongalia, County, WV. We hope that he will soon send us more information.

Edgar K. Counts, 519 SE Jackson St., Albany, OR, 97321, is the son of Richard F. Counts and Rosa A. Adkinson d/o Liberty Adkinson and Rebecca Ellen Speer d/o Silas E. Mrs. Velma (Counts) Chevalier, 360 Rainier Blvd. NE, Issaquah, WA, 98027 and Lyle Edwin Counts, 130 N. E. Creek Way, Issaquah, WA 98027.

Sara H. McDonie, 2040 Dogwood Dr., Lexington, KY 440504, found us through the America Online Genealogy Forum. She put the name Dragoo on the message board and DFA member Del Osborn told her about us. The Dragoo that she had in mind was Elizabeth (Betsy) Straight Dragoo who was kidnapped and murdered by Indians in 1786. Sara is descended from the Hays family and she has been led to believe that her ancestor John Hays married Elizabeth Dragoo d/o of John and Betsy Straight Dragoo. All of our records state that Elizabeth married James Hays. We are trying to straighten out the facts. Sara's Hays branch moved to Kentucky and since several John Hays went there it is confusing. Her John Hays Jr. married Elizabeth Anderson. John Jr. had 3 brothers:Thomas, Hiram and one whose name is unknown. If any of you can help Sara,please write.

They married in 1892 and moved from Fentris Co., TN to IN. From there the line is unclear. Andrew could have been the s/o Ephraim s/o Andrew s/o Belt.I; or s/o Belteshazzar s/o Andrew s/o Belt. I. If any of you can help William and Theresa, please write to them.

Rita Peters, 3420 Union Ave., Lake View, IA 51450. Rita is just now learning about her great great great grandparents and their ancestors. Lee also sent an account of John Stephenson an Irish sea captain who is of course entwined with the Dragoos in Brown County. Samuel Fitch born in 1777 is mentioned in this account and must be the name sake of Samuel Fitch Dragoo. Maybe more about this family later. Thanks Louise for allowing me this space in the Dragoo Family Association newsletter!

We are very glad to learn about Lee's connection to our family. There is quite a bit about the Flaugher family in the History of Brown County, Ohio, 1883, compiled by Beers. I don't have the book with me at present (it is in WV) but I remember reading about a farm wagon first owned by David Flaugher still being used many, many years later by one of his descendants named Stephenson. The Flaugher family came very early to what is now Brown County, Ohio, and was instrumental in its development. No doubt Anna (my records have Ann) and David grew up together. She must have married David around the time that her parents, Belteshazzar and Martha Hannah Butler Dragoo, joined the Shakers. An interesting fact is that one Irene Flaugher of Portsmouth, Ohio, (up the Ohio River from Brown County) was the biological mother of Michael Reagon, adopted son of former President Ronald Reagan. Is it possible that Lee and Roxanne are his relatives?

Lee is a long time member of the DFA. One of our brand new members, Wm.(Bill) McAfee, also wrote a very interesting letter. His line is given on the membership page, so I will not go into that here. I saw that he was originally from Smithfield, WV, so I asked him if he knew of a Dragoo store that burned down there years ago. His answer is given below:

Your mention of Grandpa's (Curtis Virgil Dragoo 1881-1959) store burning down brought back a lot of nostalgic memories and flashbacks! Mother (Alma Irene Dragoo McAfee, 1908-1976) told me she had been teaching in Buckhannon. She came home, either for a weekend or the summer, I wasn't clear on the reason, and was really distressed as she walked down the RR tracks from the depot and saw her home in ashes. The family lived upstairs, over the store at that time. Evidently a man (a drunk, according to Grandma Belle Henigen Dragoo,(1885-1963) fell asleep with a cigarette in a room at the hotel next door. The flames caught the curtains blowing from the open windows in the family quarters. With nothing more than a bucket brigade, it was a hopeless loss. Since Mother married in 1934, this must have been the early 1930's, but I don't have a date. Curt was later understandably one of the main supporters of the formation of Smithfield's Volunteer Fire Department.

Grandpa was also flooded out at least once, but I don't know when. He and his brother Larney William Dragoo (1876-1922), started the store and it was still "Dragoo Bros. General Merchandise" when it was sold to Earl & Josephine Shuman after his heart attack in the late 50's. After it was burned, he rebuilt it with a type of ceramic block. It was (is) a two-story building, fronting on the street that runs from the Methodist Church (that Dad helped build) to the American Legion. Going that direction, it is on the right, just before the iron bridge over the creek that flooded every spring. It still stands, but is used as a bar, I believe.

As a child I remember the gas pumps that had to have the fuel cranked up into a visible tube, than drained by gravity into the car. It was a big deal when Curt had electric pumps installed. I pumped gas there.

We used to spend a lot of time there before I was 10. Grandpa was often good for an RC (Royal Crown cola) and a Clark bar or Butterfingers. Grandma wasn't as generous. We would sit in the shade on the loading dock at the side of the building in the hot, humid summer afternoons and rest 'til we could take off again on our bikes, refreshed from our snack. He also had a freezer with ice cream, ice cream bars and sandwiches and popsickles that we loved to get into. We couldn't sit there in the mornings because that was when the grocery and produce trucks came in from New Martinsville, Clarksburg and Fairmont to restock the store.

I've been saying "We". I guess I think mostly of my late cousin, Roger Curtis Reed (1940-1978) who lived with Grandma most of his pre-teen years. My brother, Keith, was six years older and definitely didn't "hang around" with my age group.

Grandpa served the surrounding area by "taking orders" and delivering goods and produce to those who might

First I would like to thank all the DFA members who have responded with all the information they have sent me and to apologize for being so persistent in my quest for the Dragoo descendants. To the members who have not sent in their line to the Dragoo family, I know it is not that easy to come up with dates and places, even of close family members.

As of this date I have 2622 direct descendants of Pierre Dragoo and counting the spouses there are 4060 persons directly or indirectly related to Pierre.

One interesting letter I received from E. Lee Epps about his roots, is, I thought worthy of passing on to the DFA members with Lee's permission. Lee's line is son of William Wallace Epps and Marilee Stephenson> Francis Marion Stephenson> Mills Stephenson and Eleanor West Flaugher> David Flaugher and Anna Dragoo> Belteshazzar and Martha Hannah Butler. Lee is the fourth great grandson of Belteshazzar.

Here are some excerpts of the record of David Flaugher-Anna Dragoo family by E.Lee Epps:

"Brown County, Ohio is the site of much of the information. My great grandfather F. M. Stephenson took over his grandparent's property (David Flaugher & Anna Dragoo) and built a home in 1880 that was the storied residence of my older family members after they moved to the Oklahoma Indian Territory. David and Anna Dragoo Flaugher and their daughter Eleanor West Flaugher Robb are buried on private property on an adjacent Flaugher farm. This was obviously the Flaugher family cemetery, which of course is not now in the family as far as I know. I have never run into the current residents, but drive onto their property to visit the old cemetery whenever I visit Brown County. It is in decadent condition; the current owners do not take care of it. Cows seem to roam at will through the thicket.

Belteshazzar,s monument is on the old Fitch Farmstead. I am also a Fitch descendant! They donated the land for Fitch's Chapel and cemetery where many of my ancestors are buried.

The Stephenson descendants of Anna Dragoo Flaugher lost the farm to the bank after financial difficulties. Most of them moved to Indian Territory, later Oklahoma, where my mother was born and raised. But Brown County remained the emotional home of that generation, although few ever returned. The only brother who did not leave Ohio has left descendants in the Cincinnati area. Much of this information is included in the enclosed narrative.

One item of interest to me is the pronunciation of the name Flaugher. The area residents now seem to pronounce it "Flock'er". My family always said "Flew'-her". The country road along the old Flaugher farmsteads is named today, Flaugher Hill Road.

Our research had Anna's maiden named listed as Dragoo, but we had no information on her family. One day while opening a volume in the city library in Ripley, a complete history of the Dragoo family fell into my lap. I am so indebted to the Dragoo descendant who planted those pages between the leaves of that book. Hence I learned of the Dragoo genealogy and the Dragoo Family Association. My French pronunciation education tells me the old spelling "Dragaud" would be pronounced "Dra-go", not "Dra-goo". I wonder if the spelling or the pronunciation was altered through the years?

David and Anna Dragoo Flaugher's daughter Eleanor West Flaugher lost her husband when he was only 25 and she, 20. She had by that time given birth to my great grandfather Francis Marion Stephenson. She later remarried to James Robb. I believe she followed him out of Brown County, leaving her son with his grandparents. She had another son, Eldorado Robb. We have letters written from Eldorado to his half-brother F.M. Stephenson while Eldorado was in the army following the Civil War. The family legend tells that there was one such letter saying Eldorado was leaving on expedition with General Custer and then was never heard from again. I, however, have never come across such a letter in the collection and have never found Eldorado's name mentioned with any Little Big Horn information. Nice story anyway! I had always wondered what happened to Eleanor West Flaugher Robb. Did she ever return to Brown County? At any rate, she is buried in the Flaugher cemetery with her parents. Her son F.M. did name one of his daughters Eleanor West Stephenson.

There are of course many younger descendants of Anna Dragoo Flaugher which are not included in this correspondence. I have a feeling you may wish to have that information. I could pursue that, but as of now I am just forwarding to you the information already at hand. My slowest time is in November and December, and that is the time I try to do some genealogical updating. But I never get the time that I expect to, even then. I hope this information helps you some. Let me know if you need more current updating, and I will try to add names of other descendants as time allows.

Once again thank you for your interest.

David and Anna Dragoo Flaugher had one more daughter that I know about, Margaret Flaugher who is the third great grandmother of Roxanne Ruggles, spouse of DFA member Charles Coulston. I made mention of this when I returned a print out to Lee but as of this writing I am not sure if he was aware of Margaret's existence. Roxanne Ruggles is the daughter of Robert and Shirley Holton Ruggles> William and Bessie Fulton Holton> Cooper and Lydia Sutton Fulton> Catherine Cooper and Joseph Fulton> Jacob and Margaret Flaugher Cooper> David and Anna Dragoo Flaugher> Belteshazzar and Martha Hannah Butler more horses. A pair of moccasins was put on his hands so he could not keep the brush from lashing his face.

"The horse was turned loose this way. He reared and plunged with his helpless rider much to the amusement of the warriors. Finding that it could not shake or jolt his pack off, the horse quieted down and joined the procession to the Indian town." In due time, Kenton slipped away from his captors.

Neil Washburn was not as well known as Daniel Boone or Simon Kenton, but as an adventurer and Indian fighter, he performed deeds of sheer courage, equal to those of any frontiersman in the Virginia Military District.

As an Indian hunter, he patrolled the Ohio, guarding the Kentucky shore from Maysville to the north of the Little Kanawha. He was a relentless Indian hunter, serving with Boone on his attack on Tecumseh's camp in the Virginia District and also under Gen. Anthony Wayne at the battle of Fallen Timbers.

After peace with the Indians was restored, Washburn spent most of his time hunting and trapping until the War of 1812 in which he served as a ranger. For a while, Washburn and his wife lived in Brown County, owning land about six miles east of Georgetown.

The most important army connected with Brown County in the campaigns against the Indians was the one commanded by Col. Benjamin Logan in the autumn of 1786. Gen. George Rogers Clark raised forces for an expedition against the Indians on the Wabash, and ordered Col. Logan to raise a force and march against the Indian towns on the headwaters of the Great Miami.

Logan succeeded in raising four or five ? mounted riflemen with whom he crossed the Ohio near Maysville. He continued northward and would have succeeded in surprising the Indian towns had not one of his men deserted and given the enemy warning. He succeeded, however, in destroying the towns, destroying numerous cornfields, killing 20 Indians and taking seventy prisoners. He returned by the same route two weeks later.

A few miles above Ripley on the north side of the Ohio is an opening through the hills into Eagle Creek valley known as Logan's Gap. It is probable that Logan's army passed through this gap, which could account for the name.

The Early Settlers

The first settlements in Brown County were made in Union Township. The Brown County History (1883) states that Cornelius Washburn and William Dixon crossed the river from Kentucky at Logan's Gap in 1793 and built a hut on Eagle Creek one mile from the river, where Mr. Dixon continued to live for some time. Dixon is said to be the first white settler in Brown County in Thirey and Mitchell's Encyclopedic Directory and History of Clermont County.

William Dixon was born in Ireland in 1755. He came to Pittsylvania Co., Virginia. He served in the Revolutionary War in Col. Armand's Legion, enlisting in 1775 and being discharged in 1783. He was a private and a corporal, received a land bounty of 200 acres and was granted a pension March 4, 1831.

Dixon married Grizzy Ann Bell (1771-1825). They had a son, William Dixon, and their grandson was Dr. William A. Dixon of Ripley. They lived at Red Oak. Dixon died June 10, 1838 at the age of 83 and is buried in the "Old Brick Church" cemetery at Red Oak.

Belshazzer Dragoo is credited with the first permanent settlement in Union Township in either 1794 or 1795. Before crossing the river to settle, he had emigrated from Virginia to Mason County, Ky. The Brown County Atlas says that Dragoo was a native of Hagerstown, Md.

Adams County records showed a transaction whereby Alexander McIntyre of the District of Kentucky and State of Virginia bound himself to make a deed to Belshazzer Dragoo on August 24, 1791, for 450 acres of first-rate land lying on both sides of Eagle Creek, not more than ten miles from the river. The deed was to be made as soon as it could be obtained from the office at Louisville. By this bond, Dragoo was the first on record to contract for a home in Brown County.

A stone monument east of Ripley on the Scoffield Road (Old Aberdeen Road) commemorates the settlement. This monument was erected by the Ripley Chapter D.A.R.

The next few years were busy ones for the pioneer Dragoo as he worked to develop and improve the land on Eagle Creek. When the Shakers came to this county, he became a convert to this faith and joined the community. He

The mother of Indian William was Elizabeth Straight; her brother, Jacob Straight, was killed in the same Indian raid in which Elizabeth and her baby were killed. James Milton Dragoo

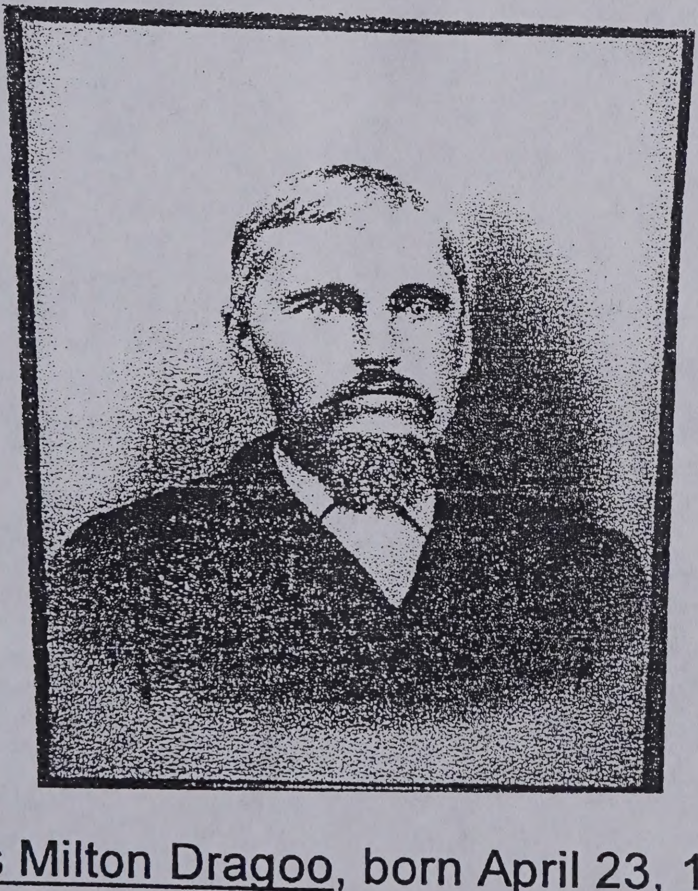
April 23, 1846 - January 1, 1931



James Milton Dragoo, born April 23, 1846, son of Franklin Dragoo and Susan Hawk, both natives of Ohio. He was a member of a family of six boys and six girls and was the sixth child born.

Franklin William Dragoo

December 25, 1811 to July 8, 1888
GrandSon of Belteshazzar Dragoo and Martha Hannah Butler

Susan Amanda Hawk (wife #1)

July 5 1815 to February 12, 1872
daughter of Phillip Hawk and Mary Ballentine

From the 1950 writings of Neville Franklin Dragoo of Fairfax, Atchison County, Missouri

Neville, born June 17, 1872 - died June 23, 1961, was the son of James Milton Dragoo

Franklin William Dragoo was an active man, not only of his own affairs, but in the welfare of others. During the Civil War he made trips through the battle lines to help sick and wounded soldiers. At one time he brought Christopher C. Dragoo home, and which, no doubt saved his life, as he was very ill with chronic diarrhea and would likely have died if he had been left in the, then inadequate army hospitals.

During the War, grandfather had, beside his own family to care for, the wives of three soldiers, two daughters and one daughter-in-law, with two children each, Mary Anderson, Sophia Adamson and Ellen Anderson Dragoo, who died during the absence of her husband Lawson Dragoo.

Grandfather Dragoo, also, my Grandfather Cheesman came from the same county in Ohio, which was Adams County. Aunt Mamie Smith told me that the Dragoos were descended from two brothers, name, Belt and Daniel, French Huguenots. Our Gt. Grandfather was named Belty, short for Belteshazzer, and was a blacksmith, also a breeder of fast horses, and had two imported stallions from England, folks said he was crazy to pay so much money for the first one, but he paid a great deal more for the second one, so me must have made money on the deal. Mr. Brady said, "You could not tell where old_Belty's whiskers blended with the gray stallion's tail, they were the same color. But the Guthrie's, Dragoo's and Cheesmans came from Adams Co., Ohio to Mo., the Cheesmans came in the 1850's, the others after the Civil War."

Notes for Ruth Elaine DRAGOO

Here is what Aunt Ruth wrote to Aunt Louise: 4-6-06 Dear Louise, Happy Birthday. I bought 2 boxes of BD cards and can't find either one. I think my memory is improving - thank goodness. We are having lovely weather. We've had tornado scares but we escaped all of them. I feel sorry for the farmers. It's so very dry. I gave up my car last week. Jody came and got it. I quit driving because I get dizzy occasionally. I practiced having no wheels and I can handle it. I think of you often. My traveling days are over. I miss it, but it was time. My daughter Jody who had a stroke fourteen years ago fell last year and is bound to a wheel chair now. I asked her if she'd like to live in a Prebay manor - she said no. Hang in there and have a Happy Birthday. Love, Ruth

To the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Brown and State of Ohio—

Your Petitioner Sarah Flaugher respectfully represents that for more than one year now last past she has been and she now is a bona fide resident of said county of Brown—that on or about the 6th day of March 1851 she married one Job Flaugher and that she has had by the said Job Flaugher two children Frances Amanda aged four years the 24th day of last January and John H. aged two years the 13th day of last October. She avers that she lived with the said Job Flaugher performing all and singular the duties and offices of a faithful and affectionate wife till about the 6th day of February 1853 when by the ill and cruel treatment of the said Job Flaugher she was compelled to leave him and go to her mother for refuge and support with whom she has lived since the separation from her said husband—She says that at different times while she was living with the said Job Flaugher he treated her with extreme cruelty and frequently beat and bruised her in a brutal manner and particularly on the 25th day of January 1853 abused her most unmercifully and struck her—and from that time to the time she left him he frequently threatened her life:

She therefore prays that the said Job Flaugher may be made a defendant hereto and be compelled to answer all and singular the matters and allegations herein contained—and that upon the final hearing your Honor will decree that the marriage contract existing between the parties be forever dissolved and the parties be freed from the obligations of the same—that her ~~name~~ maiden name "Sarah King" be restored to her, the custody and care of her children be awarded to her and such reasonable alimony and support as the court may think just and reasonable—and that such other and further relief and proceedings may be ordered and decreed in this case as the nature of the same may require—She prays process &c—and will ever pray &c.

SPEECH

HON. CHILTON A. WHITE,

OF OHIO, IN THE

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

January 11, 1865.

The Speaker announced the regular order of business to be the motion to reconsider the vote by which the House on the 15th of last June rejected a joint resolution (S. No. 16) submitting to the Legislatures of the several States a proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States, on which the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. C. A. White) is entitled to the floor.

Mr. C. A. White--Mr. Speaker, this is a proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States so as to prohibit the existence of the institution of slavery throughout the entire territorial jurisdiction of the United States, and conferring upon Congress plenary power to pass all necessary enactments to enforce this provision of the Constitution. I do not propose at this time to enter upon a discussion of the abstract question of slavery. This, sir, is not so much a question of expediency, in my mind, as a question of right and power, and as such I propose to discuss it to-day. There are many questions entering into the discussion of this question which are purely questions of expediency; such as the propriety of submitting to the people an amendment to the fundamental law of the land at a time when we are engaged in a most terrible revolution, and when the public mind and the public attention are rivited upon the events which are transpiring daily in our midst, and when it would be almost impossible to secure to this amendment that careful and serious consideration which it demands at the hands of the American people and of the American Congress.

But, Sir, I maintain that we have no power, that the Congress of the United States has no cognizance of the subject matter under consideration so as to affect the status of individuals, that it is solely and exclusively within the power o the States; and that the fifth article o the Constitution providing for amendments does not confer upon the Congress of the United States any jurisdiction o any power beyond the grants and delegations of power plainly and distinctly written down in the Constitution. The very term "amendment" is itself a word of limitation. This is not a change, a alteration, a modification, an enlargement, or a diminution of any provision already existing in the Constitution, but it is a supplement added to the Constitution—a seperate, independent, distinct

Dear Linda,

Thank you for your prompt reply to my request for genealogy information. The documentation you provided was very helpful to fill some blanks and add some additional individuals I did not have in my database. I have been documenting all the descendant lines, not just my direct line as information has become available.

Your letter stated that you now have access to a computer. I attempted to contact you by E-mail, but apparently my interpretations of cursive writing is limited sometimes and your E-mail was returned to me. I would be willing to loan you my Family Tree Maker software if it would help you to organize your information. Another advantage to using this software is that you would be able to easily receive and modify information from those of us also running Family Tree Maker. I would include a complete copy of my data base. Let me know if this interests you.

You mentioned that you only have one page of the four Ross Parker scrolls. I have been incontact with James Flaugher, now of Texas, who is in possession of the original linen scrolls. He not only sent me the four you refer to, but an additional four pages no one knew existed. All the additional individuals are included in my database. I could provide you with copies of these scrolls for duplication and shipping charges of $40.00. The two disks I have enclosed should be viewable on any word processor software such as Wood Perfect or Microsoft word. This information is compiled from my database.

Sincerely,

Scott

1. Adam^3 Flaugher I (Christian Adam^2, Hans Jacob^1 (Flauer, Flauger) Flaugher) was born 1756 in Hagerstown, MD/, and died ~~August 08, 1825 in Kentucky~~/. He married Catherine Ann Hidler/ Abt. 1772, daughter of George Hidler and Catherine. She was born Abt. 1750 in Germany, and died ~~Abt. 1790 in PA~~. after 24 Dec 1825 Br. Co., OH d. before 8 Aug 1825 Hunt. Twp., Br. Co., OH *see "Adm. Testimony Record A" copy + see d. 8 Feb 1825

Notes for Adam Flaugher I:
In the early days of Adam's life, he was raised on his father's two farms. One in Hagerstown Maryland. The other one was in Chamberburg, Pennsylvania and getting what little education that was available to him at the time. Adam Flaugher I was born in 1756. He married a Miss Hidler and they had nine children. He is mentioned in the Daughters of the American Revolution Patriot Index 1966 DAR #278871 as a Sgt. from Pennsylvania. Adam died about 1790.

Adam's Revolutionary War records record his name as Adam the II. Pennsylvania Archives Series 5, Volume 6, page 92-115, page 92A. Class roll of the male white inhabitants of Captain Daniel Clapsadlers Company of the First Battalion of the Cumberland County Malitia Commanded by Colonel Jas. Johnson, August 20, 1780. Page 93 County of Cumberland, Pennsylvania, sergeant Adam Flaugher, page 115. After the revolutionary war was over, Adam went back to family and stayed there until Spring of 1793. During the time of the revolutionary war, Adam's mother must have died as we find his father Christian had remarried. His second wife gave him two sons and a daughter.

The old trail over which our ancestors slowly traveled in ox drawn wagons and so indescribably began at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; thence to Downington, Chester County; thence to York, York County; thence southwesterly, almost to the Mason and Dixon line; northwesterly through beautiful valleys to Leitersburg, Adams County; thence over to the treacherous mountains into Franklin County where they rested for many years.

A letter dated November 3, 1792, declares the intention of Adam Flaugher and family to venture over the Alleghany Mountains to the Glades in the Spring of 1793. They endured great hardship on their westward journey which required three weeks.

After reaching the Ohio river, the family presumably built a raft to carry the family down the Ohio River settling at the Old Washington Township, Mason County, KY. Several years latter all except Adam's son, Christopher, and his family moved to Brown County, Ohio. Later, around 1810, Christopher moved to Greenup Co., KY, (now Caret Co.). Christopher was a bondsman in Greenup Co. and he also served on the first grand jury in Carter Co.

Christopher Flaugher posted the marriage bonds of Nancy Barrett to Edward Savage on 28 Nov, 1819. Nancy listed the death of her mother, Elizabeth Flaugher, in her Bible on 24 September 1861.

Christopher was never married to a Margaret Swetnam. I have checked with a Swetnam descendant, and they have no Margaret Swetnam, daughter of Neri Swetnam. This totally false information printed in Kozee's book.

Notes for Honorable Ephraim Martin Flaugher:
The Honorable Ephraim Martin Flaugher, late of Ripley, OH (Brown County) declared that he was at one time the possessor of the immigrant's naturalization papers, and that they are still to be found in the possession of one of the numerous Flaugher's in or about Ripley or Aberdeen, Ohio. This was in 1907.

Information reprinted from a report compiled by Ross E. Parker, 1934.

Ephraim Flaugher was born in Huntington Township, Brown County, Ohio, in 1822. His early years were spent on the farm and the winter months devoted to securing such schooling as the log schoolhouse of that day afforded. He was an apt scholar, and became qualified as a teacher (although he never acted as one) under the tuition of Henry Brown, a teacher of that day. Mr. Flaugher had acquired a speculative taste, and at twenty-one years of age added to his farming pursuits the business of dealing in horses, buying here and selling in Kentucky. This he followed until twenty-eight years of age. In 1850, he was married to Mary J. Gray, daughter of Louis Gray, and in the same year he entered into partnership with Louis Gray & Co. in the pork-packing business at Ripley. In 1860, the firm bought the Buckeye Flouring-Mill and Pork House, in which they carried on as extensive trade for several years. In 1860-61, the pork packing establishment represented the names of Louis Gray, George K. Synder, James Gilliland and Jack Henry and Joe Bennington, being the strongest and wealthiest corporation in the county at that time. Mr. Flaugher was engaged principally in purchasing and supplying the house with stock, and he was considered a very successful and efficient business man. He followed the milling business, with slight intermissions, until 1868, when desiring better educational advantages for his children, he tool up his residence near Ripley. Four years afterward, he returned to his pleasant residence in Union Township, upon which he settled in the Spring of 1855. This place was formerly the William Dunlap place, and at the time of its purchase by Mr. Flaugher, consisted of 121 acres. Under the supervision of its present owner it has increased to over 250 acres, and is in one of the richest and most productive and valuable farms in the county. Mr. Flaugher has a large and extended acquaintance throughout the county, having been identified with its interests all his life. He served as Township Clerk for one year in his native township when a young man, and as a Trustee of Union Township several years. In party politics, he adheres to the Old-Line War Democrats. He was selected by the people as Representative to the Lower House of the Sixty second General Assembly and served in that body during the years 1876-77. Although nominated on the Democratic ticket, he was elected by the united voice of the people, receiving a large and flattering majority-a good evidence of the high esteem in which he was held. His service was in the interest of his constituents, and many of his strongest friends and associates were republicans. Mr. Flaugher marriage was blest with three children of whom two Louis E. and Mary E., are surviving; they both live at home. Mr. Flaugher is at present leading a quiet, unostentatious life in the enjoyments and surroundings of his family. He has been a member of the Masonic fraternity since 1846 or 48-of Union Lodge, No. 71, Ripley Chapter, No. 82, and Georgetown Counsel. He is also a Knight Templar. He takes a deep interest in the County Agricultural Society, of which he has been an active member, and for ten or twelve years a director.

Although nominated on the Democratic ticket, he was elected by the united voice of the people, receiving a large and flattering majority-a good evidence of the high esteem in which he was held. His service was in the interest of his constituents, and many of his strongest friends and associates were republicans. Mr. Flaugher marriage was blest with three children of whom two Louis E. and Mary E., are surviving; they both live at home. Mr. Flaugher is at present leading a quiet, unostentatious life in the enjoyments and surroundings of his family. He has been a member of the Masonic fraternity since 1846 or 48-of Union Lodge, No. 71, Ripley Chapter, No., 82, and Georgetown Counsel. He is also a Knight Templar. He takes a deep interest in the County Agricultural Society, of which he has been an active member, and for ten or twelve years a director.

Notes for George Washington Flaugher:
The following was reprinted from information provided by: George William Flaugher and Myrna Flaugher Simmon.

George Washington Flaugher, was a farmer and a post-master at Willard, Kentucky for many years. I remember my father (Herbert D. Flaugher) telling me about helping out in the Post Office and if they made a mistake in making a money-order out, they would have to make a new one and fill out several forms of what happened to the other money-order.

George Washington Flaugher, (my grandfather) would always keep cattle on his farm, his favorite was the Black Poll cattle.

I was down to Grayson, Kentucky the fall of 1988 and I saw several of my people, and the house of my grandfathers and the farm. Also the house and farm of my great-grandfather and the Swetnam house which belonged to my great-great-great-grandfather, Neri Swetnam. Some of the family was still living in the house. The house was built about 1718, by my great-great-grandmother's father, Neri.

While down there, I met Milton Adams and his wife, Opal (Bays) Adams. Milton is a second cousin to me by the Flaugher Family, and Opal his, is a second cousin to me by the Kennedy Family. I would say that Milton was the same age as my dad's brothers, Hazel and Croler Flaugher. He was telling me that they were raised very close together and was always big buddies. Milton Adams was a grandson of Jessie Adams, who married Eliza Flaugher, in Carter County, Kentucky, about 1868. Jessie Adams was a son of Pleasant Adams. Milton is the son of George Adams. Eliza Flaugher Adams was a daughter of James Flaugher and Margaret McGuire Flaugher.

Milton was telling me that my grandfather (George Washington Flaugher) brought him a new 1915 Ford car. Boy, he said it was really pretty, so he and Croler wanted to take it to Grayson that night to go to the show. They asked if they could have the car that night, but my grandfather said "no". He was afraid of Croler driving. Then Hazel said he'd go so he let them take the car. (Milton laughed and said he would trust Hazel and wouldn't trust Croler). Milton said they went to Grayson feeling like a big shot, until Hazel hit a man on a horse. The horse kicked the lights out, and tore up the entire front of the car. Milton sure had a laugh over it.

Notes for William LaFayette (Lack) Flaugher:
Birthdate also listed as 2 July 1871

Lack was known as a very mysterious, but trustful person. He didn't mess with other Peoples affairs and he didn't want them messing with his.

In the little town of Willard, neighbors learned to respect Lack Flaugher. For example, a Mr. Yates was suspected of stealing Lack's chickens. Lake made himself a bed in the loft of the barn waiting upon the arrival of the chicken thief. As the thief rounded the corner of the barn, lack fired hitting Mr. Yates in the rear end with buckshot. The next day, the town doctor asked Lack why he did not kill him and Lack replied, "I just wanted to shoot his rear off". The doctor said, "I have picked buckshot out of his rear end all day".

In delivering the mail, people would line the river banks to watch Lack swim his horse across the swollen rivers. He would stand on the horse's back and hold the mail over his head. Lack was a mail carrier from Willard to Sandy Hook, KY.

Notes for Howard W. Flaugher:
Howard was a very quite, private man - a loner, but he was also known to have a bad temper. He lived in St. Louis his entire life. Howard was a skilled painter and 'handy man' who was retained by several wealthy families in and around St. Louis to paint and keep their homes in good repair. He was a slender man of medium height with blue eyes and light hair. In latter years he developed a 'humped' back.

It was said that when he was young he was a motor cycle enthusiast. He once took his wife, Erma and son Billy in the side car of his motor cycle - they skidded on the side of the road and he lost control, flipping over. Irma and the baby were thrown from the vehicle receiving serious injuries. Billy was hospitalized for a few days.

Howard's first two marriages lasted only a short time. For a number of years he lived in an apartment in the basement of his Aunt Lucy and Uncle Otto's home. His son, Howard, Jr., also lived there throughout most of his childhood.

He was married to Frances when his health failed. He is buried in the Military Cemetery in St. Louis, MO.

Notes for James Harold Flaugher:
In March 1943, James enlisted in the Army Reserve Corps, and when he turned 18 was off to battle. He left the states for Italy in October 1943 where he was with the 3rd Division of the 7th Army. He was wounded at Anzio Beach on January 30, 1944, receiving an upper chest wound. He was wounded again on May 28, 1944. A shell exploded near him shattering his upper arm, two of the three main nerves were severed, and an artery was cut, but the arm was saved. The Army thought he had been killed. A telegram to that effect was sent to his parents. They received a sympathy card from General George Marshall and a letter from the Army that confirmed his death. Riley being a religious man had faith that the telegrams were not true, and Zetta didn;t think the dates jibed with a letter that she had received from him, refused to beleive that he was dead. In the hospitol, Harold (his middle name is used by the family members) grew impatient, he wanted his mail. When he wrote to the company clerk complaining he was supposed to be dead. He then received his mail all stamped "deceased".

He married Carlene Clay/Chicon July 01, 1961. She was born November 28, 1938 in St. Louis, MO.

Notes for Howard William Flaugher, Jr:
Howard William Flaugher, Jr. lived with his father, Great Aunt Lucy and Popo as a boy. Because he was a 'Jr', he was nicknamed 'Junebug' and throughout his life was often referred to as either 'June' or 'Bug'. He had many boyhood friends, the closet being 'Moose'. He also 'ran around' with Charles Evans and George 'Butch' Evans, his half-brothers. Most of his adventures and pranks happened when he was with 'Moose'. Their friendship lasted throughout life.

He learned the painting trade by working with his father, but did not enjoy that type of work. He joined the U.S. Navy about 1950, serving in the Korean War. Whenever his ship would return to San Francisco he would spend as much time as possible with his half-brother Bill who he loved dearly and didn't know existed until he was 12 years old. upon his discharge from the Navy, he returned to St. Louis and became a professional barber. He owned and operated three exclusive barber shops, the largest was called "the Gents", specializing in personally stylized haircuts. Stan Musial was one of his steady patrons. Back problems from an old injury and the loss of a kidney became so severe he had to give up barbering - he tried his hand in local politics. Eventually, he owned and operated a Taxi Cab in St. Louis.

He was a very private person regarding his personal affairs, much like his father, and found it difficult to share his personal thoughts and feelings. He was very good looking with light brown curly hair, striking blue eyes, and a ready smile. He always wanted the best for his children. Often, he would take Keith to the farm to hunt, and became a scoutmaster when Douglas was in Boy Scouts.

When his marriage broke up things went downhill for quite awhile and he seemed to be at a loss on how to keep in touch with his family. Howard's death was attributed to cirrhosis of the liver. He died December 1, 1989. He, as his father, is buried in the Jefferson Barracks Military Cemetery in St. Louis, MO.

Buster met a girl named Bertie at a pie social at Greenbrier School in Carter, CO., KY. Bertie's sister Sally had agreed to bake the pies so the girls could attend. Buster out bid a local boy for the right to share the pie with Bertie for $5.00. Bertie told Buster that she couldn't cook and didn't bake the pie. He said it was okay because he didn't like pie.

Tom Rice auctioned the pies. He told the girls to stand up so the bidders could see who the pies belonged to. When they called Bertie's name, Buster said, she smiled at him. She said she didn't smile at anyone because she didn't want to come because her boyfriend was in the service.

Buster married Bertie Lou Johnson on August 20, 1949.

Notes for Henry FLAUGHER

His Common Pleas record has him dying in Burbet County, although I can find no record of such county in Texas. His estate record says Brown County, Ohio? Also per his Dec'd common pleas final record it names * 1/108 part and 5 children not named, 1/108 part. Historical collection of Brown County, Ohio says children by Henry and 2nd wife were: joseph, Henry, Emma, Hattie and Olive.

According to family history, Henry Flaugher moved his family from Illinois to Texas about 1848. It is believed he moved to Bastrop County, from which Burnet County was founded in 1852. Although Henry Flaugher¿s name does not appear in the 1850 census, his name appears on an 1856 document from Bastrop County history archives. Henry was in the ¿stock business¿ in Texas for fourteen years. Most of the family information available was recorded by descendents of Henry Flaugher¿s daughter, Allie Flaugher Malone and her husband John T. Malone. Prior to her marriage to John T. Malone, Allie Flaugher taught school in the home of a Texas neighbor.__Sometime in 1862 or 1863 [possibly, September 20, 1863], Henry Flaugher, along with twenty-four or twenty-five other alleged Northern sympathizers, was hanged over a cave. Per family history, the twenty-five men were hanged over the mouth of a saltpeter cave; the ropes were cut and the bodies dropped into the cave. The bodies of the hanged men were kept in perfect condition for some time before being found by relatives and buried. It is unclear if it was a few days or two years before the bodies were found.__John T. Malone had found a cave while hunting with a friend in 1860; it is believed this is the same cave over which Henry Flaugher was later hanged. That same year, one of John T. Malone¿s neighbors accused him of helping slaves escape from the South. Although he was found innocent in a subsequent trial, John was concerned for his family¿s safety. In the fall of 1860, he fled from Texas with his family, abandoning his property and tools. John T. Malone eventually led a wagon train to Washington state, where many of his descendents now live. Per accounts of the wagon train adventure, Kitty Flaugher and another [probably Hetty Flaugher] of Allie Flaugher¿s sisters traveled with them. __The Burnet County seat, now Burnet, was known as Hamilton when Henry Flaugher Sr's deed was recorded 28-Jan-1856. There was also a ¿release¿ recorded in 1886, three years after Henry Flaugher Sr's death. The beautiful valley on the Colorado River where Henry's land was located is near what is now Marble Falls. Per family history, older sisters Lucy and Martha Flaugher remained in Illinois when the family moved to Texas about 1848. That is all we know about them._Allie Flaugher Malone fled from Texas with her husband John T. Malone in the fall of 1860. _John and Adam Flaugher fled to Mexico when their father was taken prisoner. _After her husband was hanged, Eliza Wilson Flaugher left Texas on foot with her six children. _Kittie Flaugher and another unnamed sister traveled on the Malone Wagon Train to Washington state in 1864; it is not known when they left Texas.

MARRIAGE: !Marriages of Brown Co Oh shows Henry Flaugher married Maria Flaugher 8 Oct 1846, Vol G-83.

Notes for Maria or Mariah FLAUGHER

Sons were possibly listed as boarders living in Brown County, Ohio with Charles & Mary Webber in 1880, but the ages of the boys was 10 years off, 26 & 24 at the time, they should have been about 15 and 16? I'm not sure about the other children listed for Maria. I have death records for Edward and Jacob, listed as sons of Henry and Maria (nee Flaugher) Flaugher. I have census records for Henry and Mariah Flaugher listing an Edward and Jacob, but the birth years don't match with the ones on the death cert. The census records list the other children. I'm unsure of what's going on with this family. 1860 census lists Adam Wilson age 25. Maria's sister Catherine married a Wilson? 1880 census lists William Cogwell age 17, not sure who he is. Lived in Mason County, KY. per Brown County, Ohio Deed Book K:62 Pg 472 March 1881.

Notes for Mahala WILSON

"My Grandma Murphy (Opal), told a family story that I recall vividly. It seems that James Wilson did not approve of his daughter Mahala marrying James H Murphy. No one seemed to know why but I think there is proof of this fact in James Wilson's will. He left his sons and daughters land and money, however, Mahala was given $100. I do understand though how James Wilson might have been somewhat negative about them marrying. James H was 12 years older than Mahala and he had two children. This is speculation and we will never know." -Greg Murphy, 2nd great grandson of Mahala.

Notes for John T. MALONE

In 1864, all living members of John T. Malone¿s family, along with his parents and some of his siblings, traveled from Iowa to Washington/Oregon on the Malone Wagon Train. _Extractions from Family Memoirs: John T. Malone¿s granddaughter, Hulda Malone Anderson, said, "After leaving Texas, the Malone family learned that in their immediate neighborhood thirty-six men were killed at the hands of the bushwhackers. Twenty-five of these were hanged over the mouth of the saltpeter cave. The ropes were cut and the bodies dropped into the cave. Grandmother¿s father [Henry Flaugher; Allie Flaugher Malone¿s father] was one of them. He [Henry Flaugher] had been taken prisoner one night when he went into the backyard for a bucket of water. One of the men who took part in the [Henry Flaugher¿s] hanging had at one time lived in my grandfather¿s [John Texas Malone¿s] home and was thought of as a good friend. One day while Grandfather [John Texas Malone] and this ¿good friend¿ were hunting, they came across this cave. This ¿good friend¿ turned traitor and informed the bushwhackers about the cave. The bodies were well kept in the saltpeter cave. Sometime later the bodies were found by relatives and buried. It was two years before Allie learned of what had happened to her father [Henry Flaugher]." _John T. Malone¿s granddaughter, Veva Malone Butler Miiler, said, "But in Malone¿s immediate neighborhood, 36 men were killed by Bushwhackers, as Mrs. Malone learned after several months. Twenty-five of these men were hanged over the mouth of a saltpeter cave; the ropes were cut and the bodies dropped into the cave. Mrs. Malone¿s father [Henry Flaugher] was one of the victims, as she learned through correspondence with a man in whose home she had lived while teaching school, before her marriage. The bodies were kept in perfect condition; and, through the influence of this man, the bodies were removed and given a decent burial."__From a family document believed to have been authored by John T. Malone¿s daughter, Madora Arabelle Malone Rogers: ¿In Mr. Malone¿s [John T. Malone] immediate neighborhood thirty-six men met death at the hands of Bushwhackers, as Mrs. Malone [Allie Flaugher Malone] learned after several months. Twenty-five of these men were hanged over the mouth of a saltpeter cave; the ropes were cut and the bodies dropped into the cave. Mrs. Malone¿s father [Henry Flaugher] was one of the victims. By corresponding with a man, in whose home she lived before her marriage when she was teaching school, she received this terrible word. The bodies were kept in perfect condition. Through the influence of this man, the bodies were removed and given a decent burial. The Bushwhackers were not men who had been regarded as low class, but men who had been highly respected.¿__From another family document also believed to have been authored by John T. Malone¿s granddaughter, Hulda Malone Anderson: "In the fall of 1860 the Southerners began to show openly their feelings of hatred toward the Northerners. . . . Mr. Malone [John T. Malone] realized that it meant death to wait longer, so he loaded a small hack with bare necessities and left one night with his family. Mrs. Malone¿s father [Henry Flaugher] also planned to go North, but he was anxious to get his crop harvested before leaving. His delay cost him his life. It was two years later before Mrs. Malone was able to find out what had befallen her father. By corresponding with a man in whose house she had lived when she was teaching school before her marriage, she learned the story. He, as were twenty-five other men, was hanged over a saltpeter cave by bushwhackers. The bodies were preserved perfectly. When they were found two years later, they were given proper burial. One of the men who participated in the crime had at one time lived in Mr. Malone¿s home and was pretendedly a real friend of the family. It was while he and Mr. Malone were out hunting one time that they had found the saltpeter cave; and it was he that had told his companions-in-crime about the cave. Mr. [Henry] Flaugher was taken prisoner when he went to the spring one night for a bucket of water. His two sons [John and Adam] then fled for safety to Mexico on the following night. Mrs. Flaugher and her six children were forced to leave their home and their possessions. They were allowed to take a two-wheeled cart drawn by two oxen in which to haul a few personal belongings, but the second day the cart was taken from them. They walked the entire distance to Little Rock, Arkansas. __From History of North Washington, published 1903, now in public domain, "Henry Flaugher [Henry Thomas Flaugher], of Newport, Stevens county, [Washington] residing one mile west of the town, is engaged in farming and gardening. He was born at Marble Falls, Texas, October 3, 1853 [1855], the son of Henry and Eliza (Wilson) Flaugher, natives of Ohio. They removed to Illinois at an early day, and to Texas in 1848, settling in Burnet county, and engaging in the stock business, which they followed fourteen years. In 1862 the father was killed by bushwhackers, and the mother returned to Ohio, where she reared her family." _[Henry Thomas Flaugher moved from Ohio to Washington in the 1870¿s. Sometime between 1900 and 1920, he moved from Washington to Oregon.]
